MOTHERS! DAUGHTERS! SISTERS!

HIS issue was to feature the present active members of college chapter whose mother or sisters are Thetas too, as announced in the December Bimonthly request for cooperation in collecting information for the series.

Since less than half of the chapters have sent information for this article, it can hardly be said to be representative of the present relationships of Theta undergraduates, though interesting, we hope. If you are disappointed not to see your name written here, encourage your chapter to select as its next editor a girl with a real journalistic nose for news and some idea of doing her share of the work of making the fraternity magazine representative.

Read of the grandmother whose daughter and granddaughter are both Thetas; of the 42 Thetas who have 44 daughters now in 26 Theta college chapters; and of the 144 active undergraduates in these same 26 chapters who have sisters who are Thetas too. The grandmother was an early member of Beta. The mothers were initiated by the following chapters, though many of them have daughters in other chapters than their own. Omega boasts of 7 Theta mothers; Phi of 6; Beta, Iota, Kappa, of 4 each; Tau, Alpha Eta, Alpha Theta, of 2 each; while one mother belongs to each of these—Alpha, Delta, Eta, Mu, Omicron, Pi, Rho, Psi, Alpha Gamma, Alpha Delta, Alpha Nu, and Alpha Rho.

THREE THETA GENERATIONS

Louise Lucas pledged to Alpha in September, 1927, is the daughter of Helen Gregory Lucas, Beta, who in turn is the daughter of Theresa Luzader Gregory, Beta. Mrs. Gregory graduated B.S. in 1873; Mrs. Lucas received her A.B. in 1898; Louise holds a scholarship awarded by the Indiana division of the National chemical association, for "promise in chemical study."

GAMMA'S TEN

Five active members of Gamma have sisters, now alumnæ, who are also Thetas: Helen DeGrief, sister of Elizabeth; Mary Louise Larmore, sister of Agnes; Mary Alice Wishard, sister of Lois; Bertha Corya, sister of Florence and Edith; Dorothy Wright, sister of Miriam, Alpha Chi, deceased.

Then there are four pledges who have sisters who preceded them into Theta: Elizabeth Hodges, sister of Lucile; Mary Hoover, sister of Florence; Flora Ellen Walters, sister of Frances of Alpha; and Dorothy Welborn, sister of Ruth and Marion, all three of whom are daughters of Edith Gauntt Welborn of Beta. There is another pledge who is a Theta daughter—Martha Batchelor, daughter of Martha Ardery Batchelor.

THREE YEAR OLD GAMMA DEUTERON HAS A DAUGHTER

Dorothy Zartman, pledge at Ohio Wesleyan, is the daughter of Helen Hunt Zartman, Alpha Gamma. So a chapter doesn't have to grow old and grow them itself—as witness also Beta Beta's unique record.

ONE DAUGHTER, EIGHT SISTERS

A pair of active sisters in Eta, Marian and Marguerite Widman, have an alumna sister, Evelyn. Then Marjorie Lawton, Virginia Sands, Dorothy Woodrow, Virginia Trowbridge, and Hazel Strand, each has a sister now a Theta alumna, while Edna Balz has three such sisters.

Eta's Theta daughter is Katherine Ruthven, whose mother is Florence Hagle Ruthven, also Eta.

FOUR DAUGHTERS, BESIDES FIVE SISTERS

Iota's list. Ruth Althea Smith, daughter of Ruby Green Smith, as well as sister of Dorothy Smith Raynolds and niece of "L. Pearle," all Phi initiates; Betty Jane Epley, daughter of Anna Hammond Epley, Omega; and two pledges whose mothers are Iota initiates, Barbara Brooks, daughter of Jane Cavarly Brooks, and Carroll Martinetti, daughter of Lillian Swift Martinetti. Another Theta daughter at Cornell, but not yet affiliated, is Mary White, Beta Omicron, daughter of Ethel Binkley White, Iota.

Dorothy Heyl has an alumna sister who is a Theta, as has Vivian Drenckhahn, who with her sister was initiated by Alpha Nu. Mary Ellen Smith has one sister who is a Theta alumna and another, Hilda, who is an Iota pledge. Mary Mann's sister, Jean, is a pledge, as is Ruth Gillespie, sister of Helen.

A SIGMA SISTER

Betty Donaldson is the one present active member of Sigma with a sister, Molly, among alumnæ Thetas. But among the alumnæ there are a number of sister groups.

DAUGHTERS IN TAU

Two Tau Thetas have daughters now in their own chapter: Bessie Smith King, mother of Alice; Jessie Phillips Roper, mother of Olive. Three Tau upperclassmen have sisters now Theta alumnæ: Eloise Forbrich, sister of Gloria; Eleanor Hulteen, sister of Katherine; Elizabeth Sargent, sister of Helen.

THREE CHAPTERS REPRESENTED IN UPSILON

In Upsilon now are two Theta daughters: Lois Poole, daughter of Cora Averill Poole, Alpha Nu; and Theodota Davis, daughter of Alice Jones Davis, Psi—Theodota also has two sisters who are Upsilon alumnæ, Alicia and Alfreda. Magel and Mildred Shulind are two sisters with the distinction of being in college together, while Rebecca McDonald has an alumna sister, Ruth McDonald Welles. Three cousins and one niece are also listed on Upsilon's active roll.

THE SECOND GENERATION IN PHI

Five Phi Thetas have daughters now in the chapter: Dora Moody Williams, mother of Betty and of Rhoda, Alpha Xi, now transferred to Stanford; Edith Barnhisel Fisher, mother of Mary; Edith Hill Powers, mother of Maralyn; Ruth Spilman Van Norden, mother of Margaret (and of Linda, now an alumna); Maralyn Barnard Poole, mother of Barbara Denny. Another Theta mother, Maude Tufts Frick, Omicron, has two daughters, Barbara and Madeline, active in Phi, and another daughter, Anne, recently pledged. Ruth Mason has a sister among Phi's alumnæ, as has Julia Merritt, transfer from Iota.

FORTY PER CENT RELATED

Omega reports that forty per cent of her active members are Theta daughters or sisters. The five Theta mothers, all Omega initiates, too, are—Minnie Wilson Olney, mother of Florence; Marion Whipple Garrettson, mother of Marion; Jenny Ellworth Price, mother of Harriet; Katherine Bunnell Gorrill, mother of Marion; Florence Nelson Ray, mother of Rosalind.

Rosine Hensley, Olive Balcom, Jane Younger, each has a sister among Omega graduates. Barbara and Natalie Wyckoff are sisters who have the pleasure of being in college together; as have Alice and Edyth Henderson, who have two alumnæ sisters, Ruth and Dorothy, too, making a unique group of four Theta sisters.

ALPHA DELTA'S TWENTY-SEVEN PER CENT

Marcella Miller is the daughter of Florence Reasoner Miller, Kappa; Nancy Larrick is the daughter of Nancy Nulton Larrick, of Alpha Delta, too; and Martha Perrill is the daughter of Charlotte Knox Perrill, Beta.

Then Virginia Davis is the sister of Clara Davis Tucker; Elizabeth Corbell, sister of Jane Corbell Thomsen; Virginia Jones has two sisters, alumna of Alpha Eta. Robin and Bertha Smith are sisters lucky enough to be in college together.

ALPHA THETA'S GROUP OF NINE

Sisters in Alpha Theta are: Sue Heatly, sister of Mary Hoyle, alumna; Eleanor Bruce, sister of Katherine, alumna; Blanche Curtis, sister of Virginia, alumna; Martha Hanna, sister of Virginia Hanna Strother, alumna; Jean Canady, sister of Carlyle Canady, alumna; and Marjorie Mansell, sister of Dorothy, alumna.

Then the chapter is proud of two Theta daughters, both of whose mothers are also from this chatper. Thea Goldschmid is the daughter of Gretchen Rocks Goldschmid. Mary Ford is the daughter of Kitty Petty Ford, and is in college with her aunt, her mother's youngest sister, Daisy Petty.

SISTERS IN ALPHA MU

Rachel Way, sister of Margaret, alumna; Carolyn Dziatzko, sister of Maud, alumna; Mona Carnahan, sister of Gladys, alumna; Mary Katherine Millet, sister of Betty, alumna; Bernice Purvis, sister of Norma, alumna; Mary Bruce, sister of Josephine, alumna; Betty Aull, sister of Madeline, alumna; Mabel Mantz, who has three sisters now alumnæ, Dorothy, Aline, and Marion. Anna Lee Beasley, senior, has a sister, Frances, in Alpha Mu's pledge group.

ALPHA AND ALPHA OMICRON

Eula White Grimes, Alpha, has a daughter, Esther, active in Alpha Omicron. Two Alpha Omicron sisters are in college together, Margaret and Gladys Dannenberg. Llewellyn Trapp is the sister of Lillian Trapp, alumna. Jo Mattison has two sisters among the chapter's alumnæ, Mary Mattison Shaw and Marguerite Mattison Downing; so has Lucie Jarbeau, sister of Alva Jarbeau Torkelson and Mary Jarbeau Cunningham. Frances Blackman, pledge, is the sister of Ruth Livermore, Tau. Lou Latimer, pledge, has two sisters in Theta, Katherine Latimer Crowe and Margaret Latimer Chastain.

ALPHA RHO'S ASSETS

Alpha Rho has two Theta daughters and ten Theta sisters, "every one of them a credit to Theta." The daughters are also sisters, Helen and Dorothy Whittemore, whose mother is Helen Austin Whittemore of this chapter. Sisters: Norma Damuth, sister of Marion, alumna; Evelyn Maule, sister of Jennie and Mabel, alumnæ; Marjorie Reynolds, sister of Gertrude and Winifred, alumnæ; Lelia Dunlap, sister of Anne and Lenette, alumnæ; Betty Frary, sister of Francelia and Phoebe, alumnæ; Irene Williams, sister of Flora, alumna; Katherine Groves, sister of Mildred, alumna; Olive Gilbertson, sister of Lila, Gladys, and Beulah, alumnæ.

ONE DAUGHTER, THREE SETS OF SISTERS

Far away Kappa initiated Julia Benedict Howe, mother of Frances Marion Howe, Alpha Tau's Theta daughter. In this chapter Betty Morris has a sister, Helen, alumna; Henrietta Thompson, junior, has a sister Margery as a pledge; while Mary Carrothers, senior, has two sisters, Ruth and Dorothy, in the pledge group.

ALPHA UPSILON

Darlene Doubleday Newby, Kappa, has a daughter, Elizabeth, now active in Alpha Upsilon. In this chapter two sisters are active together, Mary and Ruth Green; six other active members, Esther Mullin, Helen Washburn, Eloise Wolcott, Carolyn Edson, Martha Kiene, and Frances Hughes, have sisters now alumnæ of the chapter.

Two Actives, Two Pledges

Alpha Chi reports two active members, Elizabeth Merritt and Rena Mae Norris, and two pledges, Lucy Keiser and Barbara Fisher, as sisters of Theta alumnæ.

TWIN SISTERS

Alpha Psi boasts twin sisters: Edith and Mary Reeves, Edith a senior at Lawrence, Mary, studying at Columbia. Henrietta Pratt, sophomore, is a sister of Katherine, who was a senior when Henrietta was initiated.

A REMARKABLE RECORD

Beta Beta, established only 11 years, has one of the larger groups of daughters and sisters—proof that Randolph-Macon needed Kappa Alpha Theta. Three Theta daughters head this list: Mary Frances Tuttle, daughter of Daisy Hemphill Tuttle, Alpha Eta; Nell Denson, daughter of Annie Love Dowdell Denson, also Alpha Eta; and Mary Revercomb, pledge, daughter of Bertha Campbell Revercomb, Kappa. The sisters are: Minnie Brooks Parker, sister of Ruth, Beta Beta alumna; Jacqueline McKenzie, pledge, sister of Isabelle, Beta Beta alumna; Anna Stay, sister of Mary, Alpha Eta alumna; and two pairs of sisters in college together: Lilla, pledge, and Merrill Pratt; Helen, pledge, and Marion Hitler.

FIVE SISTER GROUPS TOGETHER IN COLLEGE

Beta Iota has a record, five pairs of sisters all in college together. They are: the twins, Margaret and Marjorie Graham; Ada and Helen Giese; Bessie and Shirley Stephens; Frances and Grace Garoutte; and Mary Frances and Helen Mayhew, the last a transfer from Alpha Upsilon. Then another active member, Mary Louise Springsteen, has a sister among Beta Iota alumnæ, namely Martha Springsteen Chappell. Last but by no means least, comes Janet Hall, whose mother, Angeline Thompson Hall, is an initiate of Delta chapter.

SISTERS EIGHT

On Beta Kappa's active roll today are Caroline and Emila Fox; and Catherine and Margaret Cochrane, who also have a Theta alumna sister, Lucille. Theresa Carpenter, Mildred Rockwell, Beth Shawver, and Esther Veatch, each has a sister among the chapter's alumnæ.

A FIRST DAUGHTER

Beta Lambda has initiated its first daughter. Not one of its alumnæ has a daughter of college age yet—but Mu has given Beta Lambda its first Theta mother, Coral A. Merchant Lowe, mother of Esther, just initiated.

ANOTHER FIRST DAUGHTER

Beta Mu this year pledged and initiated Euphemia Clark, daughter of Euphemia Abrams Clark, Iota (and incidentally of the president of the University of Nevada). Then there are three sets of sisters active in Beta Mu: Betty and Donna Dove; Frances and Corinne Nelson; and Margaret and Sara Hartman. Other active members with sisters now alumnæ are: Thelma Pedroli, sister of Evelyn and Nevada; Doris Conway, sister of Muriel; Alice Halley, sister of Helen; Mazie Ryan, sister of Katherine; Lucille Summerfield, sister of Esther.

BETA XI PRECOCIOUS TOO

Three members of Beta Xi have Theta mothers. Irene Taylor Heinemann, Omega, is the mother of Betty and Mary Heinemann; while Emily Weeks Sedgwich, Rho, is the mother of Sally Sedgwich, and has another Theta daughter, Jane, of Rho. Virginia Lambrecht is a sister of Beatrice Lambrecht Girard, Eta; and Valencia Renard is the sister of Gretchen Renard, Rho. Hazel Converse, Alice Turner, Ann Fontron, each has a sister now a Beta Xi alumna.

BETA OMICRON AND IOTA

BETA PI BOASTS A THETA DAUGHTER

Among this year's initiates of Beta Pi is Martha Farley, daughter of Lena Hunt Farley, Pi. The chapter has three active members with sisters now alumnæ: Alice McWood, Jean Moore, and Lois Crane.

Beside these, central office has record of 17 daughters and 33 sisters pledged this year by other chapters.

PANHELLENIC CLUB HOUSE

Since the last report of the Panhellenic house progress has been made. The ground was officially broken November 12. The great steel construction is now well under way, every day and a half another floor of steel is added. Next fall the Panhellenic house will be ready for occupancy. Make it your New York home.

PHI BETA KAPPA REVISION

The names of the three seniors of Alpha Eta reported elected to Phi Beta Kappa in the January issue are Carolyn Cobb, Frances Williams, and Hope Baskette.

THETA ADVENTURER

ARY FERGUSON, initiated by Alpha Upsilon, affiliated by Alpha Lambda, has been living in London since 1925. But, having exhausted that city's charms, she is off on new adventures. Through the kindness of Elizabeth G. Henry, Alpha Lambda, this magazine tells her plans by quoting from a letter Mary wrote January 8, en route to Africa.

"Even the doctor on the ship says I am plucky—others call it folly not pluck. I am at present sailing for Cape Town, South Africa, and between January 23 and March 18 I shall see what I can of Cape Town, George Knysna, Oudtshoorn (famous for its caves), Port Elizabeth, Durban, Johannesburg, Victoria Falls and Beira as well as various places en route. Then I shall sail from Beira to Mombasa and 'go in' via Nairobi and to Lake Victoria Nyanza where, by various means of transport, and ship, trains and automobile connections to Rejaf, where I get a Nile steamer and come down to Khartoum and Luxor and Cairo. . . . . I am as usual alone—that is the mad part of it."

THE FIFTY-SIXTH CHAPTER

THILE this magazine is going through the presses, Kappa Alpha Theta is adding the fifty-sixth active college chapter to its roll.

Beta Rho chapter received its charter by college chapter vote shortly before Christmas—a real Christmas present to group, and also to Kappa Alpha Theta.

The installation services are to be in Durham, North Carolina, February 17-19. The story of this installation will appear in the May issue.

In the meantime—WELCOME BETA RHO.

MUSIC! MUSIC!

The Grand council is happy to announce that convention music will be in charge of LaBelle Mahon Stephens, whose talented leadership made music so successful a feature of two conventions. Please read, and heed, Mrs Stephens' bulletin on plans and music for convention.

MONG the many fine things that a convention offers to delegates is an exchange of songs. Every chapter probably has acquired a few Theta songs that fit the customs of the chapter but seem too local in interest to be of value to the fraternity at large. But most such songs can be adapted to the customs of another campus too. Then, a chapter may be using only the songs in the song-book and so feels that it has nothing new to offer in the line of music.

But, a new use for an old song will enrich the musical heritage of every Theta who comes to love that song, either for its intrinsic value or for its associations. At the coming convention an attempt will be made to bring all these songs to all chapters. To this end the CONTEST.

A fine prize is offered—The Spirit of Kappa Alpha Theta—to the chapter winning first place in the contest. Second prize will be a kitten, and third prize a plate of sandwiches. If the competition is keen enough, we may even produce Colonel Lindbergh to decide the matter! To win these prizes each group will present:

1. The Theta Hymn

2. A medley of Theta songs that is original in arrangement

3. Something new in Theta music

The last item may be anything from a nonsense song to a symphony.

The competition will be public. From former experience a lot of interest and enthusiasm is predicted. Some of the loveliest songs we have were discovered in this way. We plan to make this a SINGING CONVENTION. The best way to put your chapter in a conspicuous place is to send your delegation all prepared to bring back "The Spirit of Kappa Alpha Theta."

LABELLE MAHON STEPHENS

In order to organize her choir, and plan special programs with soloists, Mrs Stephens wants names and addresses of the musical who will attend convention. If you sing, send your name to Mrs Stephens. If you don't sing, send her the names of your friends who do. Address: Mrs C. M. Stephens, 427 S. Ash st. Crookston, Minn.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT LOS ANGELES

HE official dedication of the New Westwood campus was begun with the raising of the American flag and the Blue and gold pennant of California over a crowd of some eight hundred students, the Governor of the State of California, officials of the university, and members of the faculty. This ceremony, on the afternoon of October 25, 1927, marked an important milestone in the history of the University of California at Los Angeles.

The university band and members of the R.O.T.C. participated in the flag raising exercises conducted near Founders' rock, in the huge natural amphitheater.

The throng stood with bowed heads as an invocation was uttered. A speech of welcome by Director E. G. Moore was followed by addresses by President Campbell, Governor Richardson, and Ned Marr, President of the associated students.

The ceremony was concluded with the University hymn, followed by a benediction.

MARY BASKERVILLE

NEW STATE CHAIRMEN

COLORADO—VIRGINIA THORP

Appointed January, 1928

To have Virginia back in our midst once more, after her round the world cruise, is great—and we aren't surprised at all that she has accepted the state chairmanship. It is just like her, never too busy for Theta tasks, and so happily dependable. Those of you who met her at our last national convention, when she was delegate from Denver alumnæ, know her charm, which, coupled with loyalty and enthusiasm for Theta, will make her a most efficient officer. She was initiated by Kappa chapter and was graduated from Kansas university in 1924. She is now a member of Denver alumnæ.

M. W. F.

CALIFORNIA—HILDA PALMER McCURDY

Appointed December, 1927

San Francisco alumnæ takes great pleasure in announcing that Hilda Palmer McCurdy, one of its loyal members, has been appointed State chairman for California. We know from experience the unfailing interest that Hilda Palmer McCurdy has in Kappa Alpha Theta and her delightful temperament and charm, so the office will be efficiently filled.

Hilda Palmer became a member of Beta chapter where her splendid scholastic record won her a scholarship at Wellesley and a Phi Beta Kappa key. She is married to Erwin McCurdy, a Sigma Chi and brother of three Thetas. They came to California to live at 524 Hurnlingham avenue, San Mateo, where many Thetas know their hospitable home and two attractive children.

ELEANOR CARSON BATTE

FOREIGN LANDS SUB-CHAIRMAN

Please add to January issue list—Mrs Arthur John Ela, Alaska, sub-chairman.

NEW DISTRICT PRESIDENTS

Alline Smith Wright, District V

Chapter treasurer her sophomore year, delegate to Lake Placid convention her junior year, chapter president her senior year, president of Alpha Mu alumnæ the past two years, and president of District V her first year in an alumnæ chapter, is the Theta record of Alline Smith Wright (Mrs Purd B. jr.).

Alline received her A.B. degree from the University of Missouri in 1923. There she was recognized as a leader of exceptional executive ability. Her field was not limited to fraternity work, as she has served in many college organizations, too.

From 1923-1925 Alline was executive of the Girl reserve department of the Y.W.C.A. in Bloomington, Illinois. She filled the chair of Associate Dean of women at Stephens college, Columbia, Missouri, from 1925-1926. During this time she also served as Section director of Section VI of Mortar board. She says her "bigger and better job" came in December, 1926, when she took on a six foot, four inch proposition—friend husband. Her marriage brought her to Kansas City, so she now works in the alumnæ chapter there.

Alline's fairness and conscientious endeavor, coupled with her background of experience, assures District V a successful period during her term of office.

FRANK ROBERTSON VAN HORN

Virginia Smith Zehmer, District VII

The first time I saw Virginia Smith was when she was a senior in Beta Lambda at the College of William and Mary. The first night "charm" was the characteristic I gave her, before that visit was ended "efficiency" and "fine scholar" were additional tags for her name.

Graduating in 1926, Virginia soon became Mrs Zehmer and started the career of "faculty wife" at the University of Virginia. She is graduate adviser of the Southern association of student government and a state official of American association of university women—yet with time to be the happy choice as successor of Dorothy Wilson as president of District VII.

Out in Colorado, Virginia Thorp, newly elected State chairman, is prepared to keep track of all Thetas who live in, or come to, Colorado.

As State chairman for California, Hilda Palmer McCurdy has a family of some 800 Thetas, not counting those in organized chapters. San Francisco alumnæ chapter has promised to be her assistant in this big job.

Virginia Smith Zehmer, President District VII.

CONVENTION

NCE more we approach the climax of the Theta biennium, a convention. The practical and spiritual values of this gathering are so much a part of our tradition that the fraternity has long ceased to ask the "why" of a convention and wants only to be told the "how" and "where." The "how" and "where" of this twenty-seventh convention are most interesting to me, and I have in my experience nine previous ones as a basis of judgment.

The Council has chosen the best known middle western resort, and has been so fortunate as to secure it in the middle of the season. Breezy Point lodge, at Pequot, Minnesota, July 15-21, will give itself exclusively to us, and my estimate is that 1928 will see the largest gathering of Thetas in history.

Here we may swim, canoe and fish in the clear waters of Big Pelican lake, or lie at ease on its sandy beach. Here we may explore the wooded by-paths, afoot, or atop a horse. Here we may bowl or play billiards and bridge in the recreation pavilion if a rain should keep us housed. Here we may play tennis on perfect courts, or golf on a really exceptional course. We may even take to trap shooting from the blinds of Breezy Point's owner, who is one of the trap shooting champions of the world. This owner, Mr W. H. Fawcett, and his wife, who is the manager, are unique in their hospitable spirit and personal interest in their guests. Mr Fawcett's sister is a North Dakota Theta, so he views us with more than friendly interest.

There is a large central hotel built of logs, beautifully designed and finished. This structure contains the office, diningroom, lounging rooms and bed-rooms for 150 people. Places for 50 adjoin baths used by several rooms, and 100 will have private baths. All these rooms are beautifully furnished and thoroughly comfortable places to stay.

The rest of convention will be housed in cabins adjoining the hotel. These are of various sizes, housing four to ten, with some even larger, so that parties can plan to stay together, if that seems desirable. These cottages have electric lights, ironing boards, toilets and lavatories, with nearby hot showers in case the lake is too crowded at the bathing hour! Some of them have fire places. No cots are used, and the beds are first class. Everybody will eat together—good food, in a unique and beautiful dining-room. There is the usual first class hotel service—laundry, beauty parlor, telephone and telegraph, orchestra and food for spreads. As I looked the place over it seemed to me that there was nothing lacking for a smooth-running and delightful house-party.

We plan to have a special train, of course. It will leave Chicago the evening of July 14, over the Burlington, and be joined by special cars from the south at St Paul the next morning.

After a drive about the Twin cities, passengers will embark in Minneapolis for the five hour run over the Northern Pacific to Pequot, where automobiles will meet us for the few miles' drive to the lodge.

Registration, and payment of fees and hotel bill, will be done on the train, so that the days at the lake will be free from such duties. Those motoring to Breezy Point will find an opportunity to attend to these matters immediately, so will be equally free.

It would seem that there is everything to help, and nothing to hinder, an unusually successful convention. Come and be joyful!

MARTHA CLINE HUFFMAN

Visitors who plan to go and come directly from convention should buy summer tourist return tickets to Pequot, Minnesota, via Burlington and Northern Pacific from Chicago.

Those who plan to go on to Yellowstone or other western destinations should buy their tickets to such destination, via Brainerd, Minnesota. The side trip from Brainerd to Pequot and return is $1.72. The Northern Pacific railroad representative on our train will sell such side trip tickets to those who need them.

There follow sample fares:

Round trip thirty day ticket from Chicago to Pequot, $26.85; from St Paul, $7.30; from Minneapolis, $7.30; from Kansas City, $28.80; from Des Moines, $20.35; from Omaha, $24.80; from St Louis, $32.80. Pullman fares, one way to Pequot:

HOTEL

All Reservations Must be in by July 1

Rates:

Room with private bath, single beds, 2 or 3 in room, $9 a day. Room with adjoining bath, 2 or 3 in room, $7 a day.

Room in detached cabin, with toilet and lavatory, $5.50 a day.

Rates include meals and use of all resort facilities (such as boats, bowling alleys, etc.) except golf course. The regular $1.50 green fee for use of golf course has been reduced to $1 during our convention.

The automobile transportation to and from the Special train is $1.

A dozen husbands, brothers, and fathers, if unaccompanied by women and children relatives will be housed at a cottage about 4 blocks through the woods, and may share our meals. Rate, $5.50 a day.

Other than these, the families of Thetas must make reservations at resorts within two or three miles of Breezy Point, the names of which will be published in the May magazine.

All delegates must make their own reservations.

In case a visitor must leave the hotel before the convention closes the residue of her hotel bill will be refunded in cash.

The convention will remain at Breezy Point six days, minus luncheon on the sixth. The hotel cost will thus be:

$5.50 group, $31.75 plus $1 bus transportation, $32.75

$7 group, $40.75 plus $1 bus transportation, $41.75

$9 group, $52.75 plus $1 bus transportation, $53.75

Note that hotel reservation is made on the registration slip, which is sent to Mr Wm. B. Byrne, 179 W. Jackson blvd. Chicago, Ill.

It will be confirmed directly from Breezy Point.

RESERVATIONS

Reservations must be in by July 1. They MUST be sent in on the reservation slip. (See last page this issue.)

The railroad will acknowledge the slip by sending tags for baggage and a letter as to space assigned on the special train.

The hotel will acknowledge the slip by sending stickers for baggage or car and a letter as to space assigned in hotel and directions as to payment of hotel bill.

Every one, delegates, officers, visitors, must send in the registration slip. If a party wishes a cabin together it will facilitate matters if they send their slips together.

No one can plan to arrive at Breezy Point lodge before Sunday, July 15. Delta Delta Delta is holding its convention there just previous to ours and will use all the space.

Remember! All reservations must be in by July 1.

TIPS

From the U. S. Treasury department Travel regulations the following rules as to tips are extracted. It would seem that they might be a good guide for us.

Fees to baggagemen, etc.—Fees to baggagemen and to porters on arrival at and departure from hotels, depots, and wharves or landings, not exceeding 25 cents; checking baggage at hotels or station parcel rooms, not exceeding 10 cents for each piece, number of pieces checked to be shown in each case.

Fees to porters.—Fees to porters on sleeping cars and parlor or chair cars not to exceed 25 cents for each trip of 24 hours or less. Transfer from one train to another will be regarded as a trip within the meaning of this paragraph.

For meals on dining cars and in restaurants, 10 per cent of the bill is a conventional tip, with a minimum of ten cents.

At Breezy Point lodge, the tips will be included in the registration fee, and distributed by the hotel manager and the convention manager, in order that the unseen help, as well as waiters and chambermaids, may receive their share.

BAGGAGE

All baggage must be tagged with the tag sent you from the railroad office and plainly marked with the name and hotel reservation. This is more than an ordinary precaution, as Delta Delta Delta is holding its convention at Breezy Point just prior to ours, and our distinctive tags will prevent a confusion of baggage.

There is no charge for the transfer of hand baggage from Pequot to Breezy Point, and it will be delivered to the proper room or cabin at once.

Trunks must be checked a day early. There will be a charge for transfer of trunks from Pequot to the hotel. This will be 75 cents each way and will be paid directly to the hotel. Really, no one except the Grand secretary has much excuse for bringing a trunk!

All express boxes, trunks, etc., must bear the sender's name and Kappa Alpha Theta convention in large letters, so that there will be no confusion in regard to other convention baggage.

AFTER CONVENTION

Two post convention activities have been arranged which will interest a great many Thetas.

For those who want to rest and enjoy more of Minnesota's lakes and woods, there has been arranged a house party at Inwood, about 15 miles from Breezy Point. Here, at an excellent smaller resort, Miss Archer, the owner, will welcome Thetas at $5 a day. They must, however, send in their reservation for their stay by May 15, as July is the busiest month in the lake country. Address Inwood, on Gull Lake, Brainerd, Minn. for booklet or reservation.

The more elaborate plan is for a special train to Yellowstone Park. This will leave Pequot the morning after the banquet and will be arranged to permit the visitor to take the usual four day and a half automobile trip through the Park. The cost of this extra trip will approximate one hundred dollars. A definite schedule for this trip will be published in the May magazine.

MOTORISTS

Breezy Point Lodge is 165 miles north of Minneapolis, over interesting, hard-surfaced state highways. It is about the same distance west of Duluth. For those who like to drive, no more attractive trip could be found. From Minneapolis, follow the Jefferson Highway 125 miles to Brainerd. From Brainerd, the Minnesota scenic highway, 32 miles to Pequot. From Pequot many signs point the way.

CLOTHES

Bring your best dress for the banquet. Otherwise, there will be no time nor place for anything except the simplest of sport clothes. There will be ample opportunity for the use of all your sport equipment—bathing suit, golf clubs, tennis racquet, etc. Your traveling coat may come in handy for cool evenings.

INFORMATION

Further details will appear as to stops, eastern connections for the special train, etc. in the May magazine. The railroad and hotel will distribute booklets to chapter secretaries. Any questions not covered by available sources of information will be gladly answered by Mrs Yale B. Huffman, Broken Bow, Nebraska, or by Mr Wm. B. Byrne, Passenger agent, Burlington railroad, 179 West Jackson blvd. Chicago, Ill.

Breezy Point lodge, in the land of ten thousand lakes, is on the shores of beautiful Pelican lake. It is five miles from Pequot (pronounced Peek-what), which is connected by train and bus service with the Twin cities. Breezy Point lodge is the hobby of Mrs W. H. Fawcett, wife of Captain W. H. Fawcett, who was a member of the last Olympic trap shooting team. The lodge is situated in the heart of the primeval forest and is the largest log structure in the Middle West, as well as the most striking example of log architecture in existence, and represents the latest development in comfortable resort life. Cottages and rustic bungalows adjoin the main hotel. The woods and waters of the lake are rich in Indian lore. There is golfing, tennis, saddle horses, bathing, boat and just plain loafing.

This place of beauty is to belong to Delta Delta Delta exclusively for practically one week. Deltas from the north, south, east, and west will come with the house-party spirit to work and play together.

ALUMNAE VOCATIONAL SURVEY

In the spring of 1926 Kappa Alpha Theta had 9,000 alumnæ. From this number, only 526 filled out the Vocation questionnaire sent out with the Annual report, so the conclusions drawn can be considered only as indications of general trend. The greatest value in the returns received lies in the wide suggestion of occupations for women. Here again the list falls far short of what it might have been had each alumna realized that her job would be of interest to some college senior.

The original plan was to classify the replies geographically, following the divisions used by Lila Mason Easson in the companion study of a college girls' vocational survey, but, owing to the comparatively small number of replies, any attempt to make geographical classifications would be misleading.

Generalizations from the material at hand:

Of the 526 alumnæ replying, 345 had earned one college degree; 103 held two degrees; 20, three degrees; and one, four degrees; while 57 left college without a degree—of these 57, 27 are working.

The salaries of those without degrees were, as a rule, a little lower than the ones earned by degree holders, though one degree-less Theta was earning $3,700 teaching in an art training school for teachers.

Replies to the questionnaire came from 231 married Thetas, 44 of whom are working on regular jobs. Of the 277 unmarried Thetas who replied, only 3 were not working regularly. Replies came from 18 widows, 15 of whom are working.

Of the 333 employed Thetas, 114 listed themselves as teachers, with a minimum salary of $900, maximum, $3,800; the average teaching salary was $1,894.

Jobs were obtained on graduation by 27; 14 follow their present occupation as the line of least resistance; 4 came to their jobs through accident, and for 3 of these the jobs have proved most satisfying; 4 others took their positions because of location—one as a war measure, which developed into a real job later. In professions for which they have real talents are found 44 of these Thetas. Working only because of necessity, report 20; 16 are in their present jobs because of parent's wishes; 123 because of a real liking for the work; and 83 combine both liking and necessity. The rest did not express themselves.

About 75 per cent find time for enough social life and exercise. Of the married Thetas, 96 per cent had held jobs before marriage; most of them are contented in their home making, though some feel restless and unfitted for their work. Many make no comment on this phase.

A fraction over 10 per cent of the replies showed a definite idea as to the desired line of work, which lack of training, time, or money prevented them from following. The rest seem either passively content or distinctly happy in their jobs.

Here is a most enlightening list of occupations, other than ordinary teaching, in which Thetas are engaged. Figures following title are number of Thetas reporting this as their job

The Theta who is a comparison shopper makes this interesting comment: "Comparison shopping is work which necessitates no more preparation than the average woman has had. All the larger stores in cities now employ such shoppers. The advantage is that a woman can carry on a certain amount of this work and still run her home. Many stores pay by the hour. Some employ comparison shoppers only during active seasons, or for investigation in advance of special sales. The opportunity in this job lies in the fact that one may have an unsuspected penchant for certain work, and her constructive criticisms, observations, suggestions, and so forth—in her report—will soon show up this fact. An ambitious person could easily find a truly worth while position somewhere in the tremendous organization which our modern department store has become, by starting in as one of these shoppers."

The Theta engaged in general publicity work writes: "My job includes directing speakers' bureau, editing organization papers, writing newspaper copy and trade journal articles." She adds, "General publicity work is an ideal line for women who like part time jobs and lots of leisure or freedom. Not much training is given to this work but it should be listed as a desirable vocation, with infinite possibilities for personal development. Publicity is a blanket term covering a wide variety of activities, any one of which may have delightful possibilities for the woman of initiative who can use words with a moderate amount of skill."

A social worker of fifteen years' experience, who is enjoying her work, would be glad to give any advice she can to the college girl who wishes to enter that field. Her name and address can be secured from central office.

One landscape gardener says: "I find this work very pleasant and satisfactory. I suit my hours, in general, to my work at home and I can do as little or as much work as I desire. I have four small children and have, so far, done only enough work to keep me in practice and bring in a little extra. I plan to do more this year, specializing in rock gardens."

As to our housewives who did comment on their present state, one wrote: "Perfectly satisfied to be wife, mother and combination nurse, cook, and home-maker." Another: "Part of my house work I do with difficulty and distaste. If I had an opportunity to earn in some more congenial work enough to pay for adequate clothing for the family so that I should not need to sew, it would be a satisfaction." Still another writes: "I am married and as a married woman of leisure, with business tendencies, I have been used in church, club, and college organizations in an executive capacity. It all takes a great deal of energy and time, leaving not much left over for recreation and social life. My income is limited and consequently I feel constantly the urge to enter the business field so that the additional funds resulting would help me secure the things I have always wanted—travel and recreation. Our social and business position is such that it does not seem best for me to do this and so here I am, a student, a business woman, and executive, just puttering my time away in a rich, extravagant community."

The figures, so far as they go, indicate that the time honored profession of teaching is less lucrative than business activity. Also one draws the conclusion that for those who love teaching as a life work, teaching in business is more profitable than teaching in schools. The questionnaires, and the comment they evoked, seem to indicate that there is a widening field—a portion of it in new directions—for the woman who has executive ability, alertness, and ambition.

Although the list of occupations given here by no means includes all that are open to women, and does not even include all that are engaged in by Thetas, we hope that some of the college girls, and also our married workers and housewives, may find suggestions here that will prove worth while.

ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION NEWS

Notes

In this Journal we are happy to introduce two state chairmen and two reorganized clubs. The chairmen, Mrs J. E. McCurdy of California and Virginia Thorp of Colorado, are described elsewhere, but I want to add here an interesting fact about our alumnæ work in California. In that large state Theta has four college chapters, four alumnæ chapters, four clubs, and also over eight hundred Thetas who belong to none of these organized groups. The California chairman's responsibility is, in consequence, so great that San Francisco alumnæ chapter, of which Mrs McCurdy is a member, has agreed to shoulder a part of it and to help her in every way that the chapter can.

During 1924 and 1925 the Thetas in Sioux Falls and Watertown, South Dakota, met occasionally, organized a club, and worked to increase Alpha Rho's building fund. Then the club was lost for a time. Last July a group of Vermilion Thetas under the leadership of the state chairman, Mrs Knittel, drove to Sioux Falls for an informal luncheon with the Thetas there. Recently the secretary of the reorganized group sent in their club dues and wrote: "We have an interesting group of Thetas in Sioux Falls and enjoy meeting together."

The secretary of the reorganized Theta club in Boise, Idaho, reports that they "meet informally several times a year and are aiming to contribute toward the scholarship fund and the Theta friendship fund later."

Since I sent my last notes to the Journal interesting news has come from three clubs. Last summer in Amarillo, Texas, our Theta club gave a "rummage sale and made a nice sum of money for the new Theta house being built in Austin. We are planning a tea for the Theta mothers in December and a luncheon for the freshmen who come home for the holidays." So writes their secretary, Julia Pryor. The Honolulu club met in Charlotte Hall's home in November, discussed Founders'-day plans, and made tentative arrangements for handling the February Panhellenic meeting to be held in that same hospitable home. From Helen Goode Bragg of the Southeastern Washington club came such a delightful and true to life story that I give it to you in full below. Here, then, endeth the Theta notes as sent in by

HOPE DAVIS MECKLIN

The Birth of a Theta Club

"I'd like to belong to one organization in this town that doesn't demand time, effort, or a home-made cake!" wailed Ellen Garfield Smith, our erudite librarian and a tremendously busy person, withal.

"Wouldn't that be nice?" in doubtful derision. The soft voice was Kathryn Blynn's and the manner in which she spoke indicated that such an organization was not humanly possible. She should know all about organized, systematic life for she is head of the mathematics department of the high school.

"Well, I simply can't belong to another thing—" Iras Troy Broughton said decisively, "though it seems like a Theta club could be different." Iras was tied up with a chairmanship in the State federation, besides having two children, and participating in the demands of community life in the small city of Dayton, thirty miles from Walla Walla.

"I know a husband who is beginning to doubt the value of a college education—development of efficient leadership, resultant well-rounded lives, etc. etc." Cletys Gosset Dingle's covert satire suggested that other husbands might eventually reach that decision.

"I haven't that delightful alibi of children that most of you have," Helen Goode Bragg proffered, "but for sheer busy-ness try being president of the board of directors of the Y.W.C.A."

"I should have lots of time for outside things," Blanche Blynn Ruby sighed, and we all repressed a smile. We knew too well the hospitality and lived-in-charm of that faculty house near Whitman campus. The Ruby's delightful daughter, Betty, is a Kappa, and Blanche Ruby gives unstintingly of her time and energy to all of the fraternity friends of her daughter and sons who need a little mothering or the cheer of a home cooked meal. It's an accepted fact that they never sit down to a meal with just family. Willa Cather should write another novel of this professor's house—it would be a true mirror and a beautiful cross-cut of modern college life.

"This sounds like a pet inhibition party," from Margaret Hill, who had recently moved to Walla Walla with her husband and little daughter. Margaret is a Theta from the University of Oregon.

"Let's just meet, and gossip, and giggle," the irrepressible enthusiasm was Grace Robertson's. She is a delightful, muchly traveled English woman who was initiated into Theta while health nurse at University of Oregon. She is now campus nurse at Whitman.

"It is nice just to visit," the softly intoned voice was Mildred Uehlinger's, a Montana girl who graduated at the University of Washington and is now secretary to the president of Whitman college. (It has been reported by devious routes that she is the most efficient secretary Dr Penrose has ever had—you'd never think it to look at her, for she's so femininely lovely.)

"We should set some sort of example for these undergraduates," Bess Fishback Butler of Waitsburg hinted.

The college Thetas who were meeting with us that day probably thought, yes, they're a fine lot of ash cans—where's their Theta spirit? I'm never going to let myself get that way!

Ah, yes, didn't we all say that, once?

Nevertheless, out of that meeting of indignation at the exactions made of college women in community life, there developed a Theta club that has provided fellowship for nearly two years. We invite Thetas from towns nearby and at a full meeting we can requisition some twelve alumnæ members. The meetings are delightfully informal and care free. Sometimes a member gives us luncheon, other times we have a no host luncheon down town, chat furiously while consuming our food, and go to other engagements in the afternoon. The only "worth-while" thing we have done is to pay our dues! And oh, yes, we've embroidered a dozen guest towels in desultory fashion which we hope will find a home in a chapter house before they are completely out of style.

St Paul Alumnæ Installed

Our installation will long be remembered by the thirty Thetas present. November 21 was a snowy Minnesota day and the long motor ride out to "Hame's best," the beautiful country estate of Caroline Durkee Harmon, was made through the snow-covered hills and fields of surburban country. Once arrived a note of color and festivity was imparted by the scarlet damask hangings in the long Colonial living-room, by the red roses in a huge Italian pottery pitcher and by the colorful frocks of the participants.

Luncheon, in charge of Clara Averill Poole, was served at small tables in the sun-room looking down through the bare branches of trees to the lake. Preceding luncheon the Theta pledge song was sung. Immediately following luncheon the circle was formed in the living-room where Margaret Banta, District president, led the installation ceremonies.

On the shores of Big Pelican lake, shining water of the Northland, in a country of luxuriant forests and gorgeous wild flowers, in a land of balmy evenings and long twilight, more than five hundred and fifty Pi Beta Phis worked and played together at the twenty-eighth biennial convention held at Breezy Point lodge, Pequot, Minnesota, from June 26 to July 1, 1927.

There were not hours enough between sessions to enjoy the wonderful walks through the woods; the canoeing or motor boating on the lake; the swimming or lounging along the beach; the cantering on the shaded bridle paths; or the games of golf on the well kept course.

As a special entertainment feature for Wednesday, Mrs Fawcett arranged to have a group of Chippewa Indians come from their reservation some miles away to perform for other wearers of the arrow. These braves and their squaws led by an aged chieftain put on an elaborate ceremony, adopting the Grand president, Amy B. Onken, into the tribe. The old Chief also instructed her in the art of archery. It was a most picturesque sight to see the gaily garbed red men going through the steps of their weird dances, with a group of young Indians seated inside of the circle beating tom toms, and a large circle of Pi Phis around the outside of the group. It was also amusing to watch the antics of one young Indian who did to perfection the latest steps of the Charleston while his neighbors squirmed through the steps of some ancient ceremonial dance.

Convention? Yes, it has come and gone. Only day before yesterday we were anticipating it; yesterday we were enjoying it; but what does it mean today? True, it represents to us the accomplishment of many things but even these things will soon be of the past. There are things of convention, however, that will never change—never grow old.

To those who sit in convention hall together; who drink from the loving cup at the banquet; who work and play with more than five hundred arrows about them—there comes a realization of Pi Beta Phi which can come in no other way. There comes a lasting impression—an intangible something—which even the years do not erase.

Convention—down through the years we turn back to it—to renew our loyalty and enthusiasm—to be glad again that it was our privilege to share the companionship of those whose ideas and customs may vary from ours, whose homes may lie far distant, but whose arrows are cast in the same mold as ours!—I B  $\Phi$ , Arrow

SOME FOUNDERS'-DAY PARTIES

ANSAS CITY: Eighty-five Thetas, representing twentyone college chapters attended the Founders'-day banquet at the Ambassador hotel, January 27. Down the long tables were gold candles with black kites hanging above them.
Mrs Mabel Smith Saunders, Alpha, lighted a group of four candles in honor of the Founders; then a Theta from each college chapter represented, lighted one candle for her chapter.
After the banquet, a model initiation ritual was presented, especially enjoyed by the many who have been away from college some years. The honor guest was Mrs Jessie Baldridge Lebrecht, Grand president.

NEW HAVEN, CONN. "We had a delightful time at the Founders' luncheon, January 28—twelve college chapter represented."

ROCHESTER, N.Y. The alumnæ chapter had a most enjoyable and successful Founders'-day luncheon, January 21, and added several names to its active members list.

TOPEKA, KAN. Seventy-nine Thetas, undergraduates and alumnæ, celebrated Founders'-day, January 27, with a banquet at the Country club. Each alumna drew the name of a college member, and escorted her to the table. The tables were placed so as to form a kite, and in the center was a huge artificial birthday cake with candles ablaze. Fifty-eight tapers, one for each birthday, furnished the light. The one disappointment was that, at the last minute, the guest of honor-to-be, Mrs Alline Smith Wright, District president, was unable to come. Alpha Upsilon entertained with an unusual orchestra stunt and a clever three-act play of few words and few actions.

ALBION, MICH. This club entertained Delta Gamma's Albion alumnæ club on Founders'-day with a tea in the Alpha Xi Delta lodge, January 27. Quite a Panhellenic affair!

ITHACA, N.Y. For their joint celebration of Founders'-day with a luncheon, January 21, at Willard Straight hall, Ithaca alumnæ and Iota had as honor guest the Alumnæ secretary, Mrs Hope Davis Mecklin.

CHICAGO. In the beautiful Red lacquer room of the Palmer house, three alumnæ chapters—Chicago, Evanston, South-side Chicago—and one college chapter, Tau, with many unattached Theta guests, celebrated Founders'-day with a luncheon, January 28. The toastmistress, Mrs Erma Wohlenberg Fox, acted as announcer of Station K-A-T so cleverly that her listeners gladly "stood by" all afternoon for further features.

Dorothy Jones opened the program with a charming piano solo. Two high officials honored the gathering. Mrs Jeannette Gemmill Grasett, Grand treasurer, and Margaret Killen Banta, president of District X. Mrs Grasett, first to be called upon. told in a most interesting way of the Friendship fund, which was represented at the table by a big round decorated birthday cake with candles. The Founders' memorial service was especially impressive, as spoken by Mrs Ellen Jones Browder, the second initiate into Kappa Alpha Theta, as she had known personally all the Founders. In the hush that followed came the lovely strains of the Theta prayer sung just as Thetas love it by Mrs Irene Cox Banger. Mrs Banta then gave an interesting glimpse into the life and duties of a District president, telling it in an inimitable manner. The joy of this office lies in visiting chapters, in Panhellenic relations, and in a belief in the girl of today. With a roll call of college chapters, and an informal reception, Station K-A-T "signed off" until 1929-Mary M. Glessner

CENTRAL NEW JERSEY CLUB. In spite of a blizzard, sixteen Thetas, from ten college chapters, gathered in New Brunswick for the club's Founders'-day luncheon on January 28. The guest of honor was the Alumnæ secretary, Mrs Hope Davis Mecklin, who found the club a "cosmopolitan and interesting group, which I some day expect will develop into a formal alumnæ chapter."

CLEVELAND, OHIO. Nearly eighty Thetas lunched together at Ward Park manor, January 28, honoring Theta's fifty-eighth birthday. The large and energetic Cleveland alumnæ chapter has many college chapters, and many college generations, represented on its roll, and for this party, alumnæ from neighboring towns, and a few college girls from Gamma deuteron, joined the Cleveland chapter. The honor guests were the District president, Gladys Lynch, and the Grand secretary, L. Pearle Green. The features of the occasion were the clever remarks of the able toastmistress, Mrs Hope Erwin Griswold, and the delightful songs by Marcia Kenyon Bissell, a new resident in Cleveland, but not a new singer for Theta, as Alpha Chi and New York alumnæ have enjoyed her music in the past.

Many another Founders'-day party is mentioned in chapter letters, but you'll have to read about them there, as there was no one with time to extract such news for this symposium. The staff is grateful for those editors and friends who reported specially on the above birthday parties.

IN MEMORIAM

FANNY SMITH WEBSTER, Lambda

The death of Fanny Smith Webster at her home in Shelburne, Vermont, January 18, removed from Lambda's membership one of her most loyal alumnæ.

Fanny Smith was born in Shelburne, where her entire life was spent, a noteworthy fact in these days of impermanency and unrest. She was graduated from the University of Vermont in 1899 with the degree of Ph.B. after which she taught for a time in the public schools of her native town. In 1902 she was married to Walter Webster, also of Shelburne.

Fanny came of the substantial New Engaland stock which is the bed rock of our country and she possessed in large measure the sincerity, loyalty, good judgment, and common sense which are distinguishing characteristics of it.

A devoted wife and mother, a strong influence for good in church and community, a true friend, a loyal Theta—hers was a life well lived and one which leaves a lasting memory.

In her immediate family she leaves to mourn her loss her mother, husband and two sons, one of whom is a Phi Delta Theta freshman at the University of Vermont.

BLANCHE BASCOM ROBINSON, Mu

"One candle flickers, burning low,
The other shines out clear;
One for the days that are gone before,
And one for the coming year.

"Then here is my wish in the candle light—
A wish that is all for you—
May the beauty and peace of this Holy Day
Be with you the whole year through."

Blanche Bascom Robinson spent the Thanksgiving holidays in printing and coloring the design for her Christmas cards. Within was to be written the little poem above which inspired it, and a personal greeting. But hardly were the colors dry before she was beginning the struggle with pneumonia which ended with a release from all suffering on the morning of December 9. During her illness her sister promised to send the greeting to the friends on the list she had ready.

The services in her dear memory were December 12, at the hospitable home in which she had lived during the three happy and useful months she had resided in Donora, where she was supervisor of the art courses in the schools, and the next day she was laid beside her husband in the little cemetery in Waterford, Pennsylvania. The four ministers who officiated were old friends, three of them since college days.

The tributes to her beautiful character, unusual personality, and those sterling qualities which made her a remarkable girl and woman, teacher, minister's wife, and wise counselor and friend to young people wherever she lived, will linger long in memory.

ELVA L. BASCOM

OLGA NEYMANN, Iota

The great Warden of the Universe has marked the time of Olga Neymann, and she sleeps under the cedars and the stars until the challenge to resurrection shall awake her with all the world only to tremble at its own beauty.

Who hath marked their time and seasons and warns us when our hour is struck? Only the Great Lover of the Universe, God. In each of us Providence has placed some force or power or tendency to expand, and wherever it is placed, due to some power within itself, it becomes as a beacon light, whose torch leads us on to better and higher things. So life is for work and not for weeping and our life is mapped by an Omnipotent Being, for merest drudgery perhaps and its results are not foreseen—but so we go on continuing to grow and finally, from pain and suffering, pass out to the Unknown. Thus lived our Theta sister one of the beacon lights of New York alumnæ.

As the Great Giver of all good things places for us many and countless gifts, so this brave example of womanhood was year after year bringing within her influence countless girls, some long since grown to womanhood and through years of great accomplishment they sing the praises of Olga Neymann.

Perhaps the evening of life is best—she had willingly mounted the hillside of life, and the setting sun is behind her, and she has gone on to awake again, in the dawn of a brighter morrow—so life with its buffetings and its worries is like the biting winds and drenching rain only to bring the color to our cheeks and send the blood leaping through our bodies.

Extract from Chatterbox, New York city children's hospital, Randalls Island: It was many years ago that Dr Neymann dedicated her splendid talents to our children. Her task—to make speech easy to those for whom nature had made it hard. Her work was effective, her interest keen. She loved the children and the children loved her. We all will miss her.

EVELYN LUCAS THOMPSON, Epsilon

The death of Evelyn Charles Lucas Thompson (Mrs C. D.) in Mussoorie, India, August 29, has brought to the whole Christian community a sense of great personal loss and bereavement.

Mrs. Thompson, the youngest daughter of the beloved Dr and Mrs Lucas, was a real child of India. She was born in Landour, Mussoorie, India, and received most of her earlier education in Woodstock school, Mussoorie. After graduating at Wooster university, she returned to India to be with her parents, and in 1912 was appointed a missionary of the American Presbyterian mission and assigned to the Mary Wanamaker girls' high school, Allahabad. Three years later she was married to Professor C. D. Thompson of Ewing Christian college. The whole of her beautiful radiant life was especially marked by her unselfish devotion to the service of others. Gifted along many lines, she was always ready to step in and serve wherever the need arose. As a homemaker she ministered not only to her own family but extended real hospitality to a large group of Indian professors, students and friends. One of them writes: "The entire Christian community in Allahabad is shocked to hear of Mrs Thompson's death. They just cannot believe it, so much was she liked amongst the people here."

ELIZABETH BRIDGES HAMMOND, Alpha

Mrs Hammond died at her home in Greencastle, Indiana, January 13. She had always been a loyal and active alumna, interested in the college girls and supporting the alumnæ chapter by active service.

HELEN HUNTZICKER, Psi

Helen Huntzicker, a member of this year's senior class, died in Utah in November after an illness of some months.

A CORRECTION

In reporting the death of Mrs Peacock, Alpha Epsilon, in the January issue an error was made. We are sorry. Mrs Peacock was Edna Arnold, not Adelaide Arnold, who is her sister and happily still living.

Scholarship Fund

UNDERGRADUATE LOANS— INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS

Loans are not less than $50, nor more than $500 to one person. They may be taken in one installment, or two or three, as the applicant desires.

Interest is four per cent, payable annually.

Security is asked in the shape of two endorsements of the note by financially responsible members of the applicant's chapter, college or alumnæ.

Loans are payable within two years after the beneficiary has left college.

This fund is open to all undergraduate Thetas.

Application blanks may be obtained from the president of your District, or from the secretary of the Scholarship fund committee, 915 Victoria av. Los Angeles, Calif. Application blanks when properly filled out should be sent to the secretary of the committee, together with an official transcript of scholarship record. A personal letter explaining fully any unusual circumstances will greatly assist the committee in a prompt consideration of an application for a loan.

The necessary correspondence for arranging a loan takes three or four weeks, so ample time should be allowed if money is needed for a special purpose, such as registration fees.

Inquiries are welcome and information is gladly furnished by the secretary.

A gift to the Fund is a gift to Kappa Alpha Theta in perpetuity. It is never spent; it will come in and go out innumerable times, and its value to the present and future members and to the fraternity as a whole is incalculable.

All checks, whether for interest, loans, or gifts to the Fund, should be made payable to the Los Angeles Alumnæ of Kappa Alpha Theta and sent to the Financial Secretary, Miss Ray Hanna, 3718 W. 21st st., Los Angeles, Calif.

Gamma—Butler College

A Little red school dance was enjoyed by Gamma December 10. The hall was decorated with black boards, dunce caps, and many suggestions of an old country school house. Everyone seemingly lost ten years in age, judging by costumes and actions during recess, when lunch boxes were distributed.

We are proud of a new silver loving cup that adorns our mantel since December 9, when it was awarded to Kappa Alpha for the most unique and artistic stunt at Geneva stunt day. The stunt, Ye fairview candie shoppe, was a success largely through the efforts of Isabelle Layman, its director.

Gamma held formal open house New Year's day at the chapter house. In the receiving line were Mrs. Keegan, our house mother, Helen DeGrief, president, Ocie Higgins, Margaret Ice, Annabelle Parr, and Jane Riddell. Frances Peters and Jane Ogborn presided at the tea table.

Gamma can boast an undefeated basketball team, the first Theta team to win the basketball cup. Much credit is due to Ruth Robison, captain.

District I had its State luncheon and dance January 21, at the Claypool hotel. We were happy to have Mrs. D. Bligh Grasett, Grand treasurer, with us. Gamma and Beta presented stunts at the luncheon, where Ocie Higgins sang a group of songs.

A happy Christmas was had by all at Iota. The alumnæ gave us a party December 11 at the home of Mrs L. P. Smith. Santa Claus, after many messages had been given to us over the radio, was very generous, and presents were distributed among us in a spirit of merriment and hilarity. December 15 we had our midnight Christmas party at the chapter house.

The Founders'-day luncheon was January 21 at Willard Straight hall. We were fortunate to have with us Hope Davis Mecklin, former Grand president, and now Alumnæ secretary.

She spoke to us on The greatest thing. Other speakers were Madeline Church Reed, Ruth McClelland Lee, and L. Pearle Green. Ruth Smith gratefully acknowledged the generous check given to us by alumnæ. January 22 Mrs Mecklin came to meeting and to tea with us at the chapter house.

The chapter gave a Christmas party for alumnæ. Eleanor Lockwood, our midget, dressed as Santa Claus and presented ten cent gifts to the guests. Instead of giving each other presents, the members pooled their money to buy something for the house.

After Christmas vacation came the Glee club concert, in which seven Thetas participated: Dorothy Cottrell, Frances Hazen, Eleanor Hubert, Miriam Lawrence, Virginia Noyes, Margaret Wallace and Margaret Corbin, accompanist. The following week the Greek society, Eta Sigma Phi, staged Euripides' Iphigenia among the Taurians. It was favorably received, and classed by newspaper critics as one of the most finished amateur productions ever given in the city. It was the first Greek play ever produced in Vermont. Four Thetas took part: Phoebe Flint, Eleanor Hubert, Catharine Bassett and Miriam Lawrence. Hazel Warden Dean, president of Burlington alumnæ, gave a tea for the seniors in November.

The Sophomore hop committee includes Jeanette Beecher, Phoebe Flint and Mabel Freemann. A third of the girls on Junior week committees are Thetas: Catharine Bassett, Dorothy Cottrell, Annette Middleton, Margaret Miller and Mildred Whitney. On the Senior week committees are Dorothy Dearing, Marion Cleveland and Eleanor Lockwood.

Vermont students are publishing a literary magazine, the first attempt of its kind. Its editor-in-chief is Rachel Skinner, assistant editor, Dorothy Cottrell; assistant business manager, Catharine Bassett.

Omicron had a festive and happy Christmas. A Christmas party was given at the chapter house for children from the Los Angeles county charities bureau. They seemed to enjoy themselves exceedingly. A buffet supper was given for Los Angeles alumnæ during the holidays. As a Christmas gift they presented Omicron with a most attractive set of china and glassware. Following traditional custom, we entertained our mothers and fathers with a Christmas party. The pledges furnished the entertainment, singing carols.

Panhellenic sponsored a lovely tea in honor of Mrs. Von Kleinsmid, wife of the president of the university. A fashion show was the special feature. Girls from all the fraternities modelled lovely dresses of all types for a college girl.

Virginia Roediger, besides being prominent in the School of architecture, is talented in dramatics, recently making National collegiate players.

Roberta Swaffield is leaving for Ann Arbor, Michigan, where she will attend college.

Omicron won first place in the women's inter-fraternity swimming meet, and if she wins the Spring meet, it will be her fifth consecutive victory, and she can keep forever the beautiful silver trophy, now in her possession. Mary Main, Janet Burns, Margaret Harriman, Harriet Foster, Betty Monogan, Elizabeth Kerr and Gloria Gottschalk were the champions. In basketball our girls distinguished themselves, and although not winning the championship, put up a good fight.

Formal rushing commences again February 20 and lasts one week. We have given several informal rushing parties the last month, with Helen Klene and Deborah Fredericks acting as rushing captains.

Our university has on a drive for money for a new library. All students have worked untiringly for the drive, which is managed by fifty student-directors. Dorothie Smith, a director, won first honors by collecting the largest amount of money.

Rho-University of Nebraska

The military ball was December 2. At the ball occurs the presentation of the honorary colonel, a university girl chosen by popular vote. Laura Margaret Raines, this year's winner, was presented at the ball in the regulation uniform of an R.O.T.C. officer. She had poise and dignity that made every Theta proud of this sister.

December 19 fifty children were entertained at the chapter house for dinner and presented with Christmas tree gifts. At the annual alumnæ Christmas party at the chapter house, alumnæ presented Rho an assortment of jams and jellies that will be much appreciated. The freshmen gift was a pair of bronze andirons.

The old time open house with thousands of fraternity glad hands and beaming faces has been abolished. Now each woman's fraternity is at liberty to invite two or three fraternities at a time to an hour dance on an open night. Sigma Nu and Phi Delta Theta were entertained at the Theta house November 11; Beta Theta Pi and Delta Upsilon—December 16.

Rho gave a luncheon for her chaperon, Mrs Irene Morton, December 10.

Morna Zell Wagstaff, Kappa, and Jane Eberhardt, Alpha Iota, were guests of Rho for a few days in December, while attending the national Mortar board convention. The N.S.F.A. convention brought Eleanor Davidson, Phi; Dorothy Baker, Alpha Iota; and Edna Schoemaker, Alpha Beta, to Lincoln and gave Rho an opportunity to become acquainted with more charming Thetas from afar.

Margaret Clarke was elected to Phi Lambda Upsilon, chemistry society. Nellie Reavis was elected to A Cappella choir.

Aside from activities Rho is taking a great interest in scholarship this year.

During last summer and fall, $2,400 worth of house improvements were made through the efforts of alumnæ. The first floor was redecorated and has new drapes, lamps, and chairs. The chapter room and dining room were also redecorated.

University authorities are in the midst of an investigation of student cars and may forbid their use second semester. Another campus issue is the Student council proposal to abolish all honoraries except Mortar board and Innocents. It is claimed that these are the only honoraries which have not defeated the purpose of their founding, that all the others only waste time of members.

Fern Newson and Ruth McCormick, Beta Iota, are attending Nebraska and will live at the chapter house next semester.

Rho announces the pledging of Mildred Snow, Chadron; Gertrude Ord, Lusk, Wyoming; Betty Winn, Joplin, Missouri; Lura Lou Wallace, Hastings; Harriet Davis, Seward; Irene Ruwe, Fremont; Gladys Zimmer, Kearney; Peggy Hedges, Kansas city, Missouri; Polly Partridge, Los Angeles, California; Helen Karaup, Des Moines, Iowa; Marian Clarke and Gretchen Goulding, Omaha; Nellie Revis, Falls city; Jean Towne, Doris Powell, Catherine Clapp, and Helen Day, Lincoln.

Sigma—University of Toronto

Snow may be associated with Canada in most Thetas' minds, but nothing better than wind and ice graced Sigma's winter house party, during the Christmas holidays at the Ladies' golf club, Thornhill. Skis gave place to improvised alpenstocks in our mad scrambles about the hills, and the New Year blew in upon a party flushed with fire-light and laughter.

With our mid-term work winter finally came—to Betty Donaldson's great relief, for she is manager of the girls' hockey team. We others appreciate the cold more through the contrast that warm fires and tea and toast provide. Every other Wednesday we drink tea in the Theta flat with a few of our alumnæ. This is one of the pleasant means they take of "keeping in touch with the college chapter."

In our college activities Isabel Cleland distinguished herself by winning a prize for recitation at the French society.

Following Margaret MacKay's initiation January 20, about seventy Thetas—graduates, undergraduates, and a new pledge, Mary Campbell of Toronto—gathered at a banquet at the King Edward hotel. We were especially honored by the presence of Dr Gertrude Lawlor, one of Sigma's early members, who received the degree of LL.D. at the Centenary convocation last October. She delighted us with a reference to our toastmistress, Agnes Wrong, as she remembered her, in a wide sailor hat with two long streamers. Toasts once over, the banquet dissolved into a rollicking party of "nuts in May."

Our activities are dominated largely by our new house. It is such a delight that we are inclined to dislike the visitor who pauses even for a moment in his praises, and we welcome every opportunity to display its treasures. The alumnæ have been our guests for tea and inspection of the house on several occasions, and open house also has been held for the campus.

Among the pleasant events of the fall was the visit of Grand council. Several weeks later, we entertained Mrs Margaret Philbrook Neff, District president, for a few days. Mrs Neff endeared herself to every one by her graciousness and her constructive ideas for the chapter. During her visit the annual Home-coming was celebrated, which added two bright silver cups to our trophy case. Each represented second prize for the most interestingly decorated house and float.

In a midnight ceremony, Helen Olson, Marion Knight, Jane Hymers, Harriet Hoskins, Pauline Boyd, Ruth Peterson, and Marion Keitel were initiated. Our pledge roll is represented by Margaret Crawley (sister of Helen), Charlotte Cushman, Maxine McGraw, Martha Ann Ridgely, Gail Wilson (daughter of Gail Wasson Wilson), Virginia Saunders, Virginia Martin, Marion Masterson, Jean Ennis, Bernice Taylor, Louise Vanderburgh, Ruth Maxwell, Katherine Gilchrest, Florence Schroeder, and Elizabeth Sherman.

A Christmas party was given for a group of children from Northwestern settlement, the success of which was attested by one little girl who announced that she was having "a simply swell time."

A day or two later came our own Christmas party, consisting of a formal dinner and exchange of gifts designed to please the spectator rather than the recipient.

Friday, January 13, with blissful disregard of superstitions, an enjoyable formal dinner dance was given at the house.

That we have not given all our time to dances is shown by representation in campus activities. Elizabeth Sargent, head of hockey, and Alice King, president of Daughters of neptune, are on the W.A.A. board. Jane Olson is social chairman of Shi-ai and also of Gold lantern, junior women's class organization. Olive Roper is a member of freshman commission, Y.W.C.A. Helen Cole is Big Sister chairman, W.S.G.A. and a member of Y.W.C.A. Cabinet, as well as of Mortar board.

Upsilon-University of Minnesota

January 28 was a big day for Upsilon, for she initiated nine girls in the afternoon and in the evening attended the Founders'-day banquet. The new Thetas are Vera Koerper, Helen Dolan, Mary Elizabeth Stott, Ann Weisenberger, Virginia Shepherd, Lois Poole, Jane Hubbel, Mary Elizabeth Jackson and Geraldine Bennett. Founders'-day banquet was a great success, for there were present large representations from both St. Paul and Minneapolis alumnæ chapters, and the entire college chapter. The initiates put on a stunt called A fatal tragedy in three acts, and quite amazed us with their ability as tragedians. The banquet was in charge of Marian Burton Whitaker. Catherine Burch Spear capably officiated as toastmistress.

Miss Katherine Newell Adams, president of the American woman's college of Constantinople, was the guest of honor at a tea given at the chapter house by Beatrice Johnson '21. After the tea Miss Adams talked informally to the girls about the rapidly changing conditions in Constantinople.

Just before Christmas vacation, the pledges gave an advertising party for the chapter. The chapter house was placarded with signs, and the costumes carried out the scheme. Our winter formal was at the St. Paul university club January 14. It was such a success that we are looking forward eagerly to the next party.

Many out-of-town pledges have moved into the house and we foresee a successful winter, both financially and otherwise.

Phi-Stanford University

The first two weeks of the winter quarter were taken up with a successful rushing season. The pledges will remain at the girls' dormitory, Roble, for the rest of this year. Phi takes pleasure in announcing the pledging on January 16 of Elizabeth Stuart Cooper and Caroline McDougal Neilson, who are cousins, and Jean Elizabeth Utt from San Diego; Anne Dudley Frick (daughter of Mrs R. M. Frick, Omicron, and sister of Madeline and Barbara Frick, Phi) and Maxine Mabel Shoenhair from Los Angeles; Gertrude Laidlaw from Sausalito; Katherine Wiley Rich from Berkeley; and Dorothy Verges Zitkowski from Denver, Colorado.

Last quarter ended with a dinner and stunts afterwards for the alumnæ Advisory board in a meagre attempt to thank them for all they have done in improving the house; and a Christmas party. The Christmas party was a costume affair exclusively for the chapter, and every girl received a small present accompanied by an appropriate limerick.

Rhona Williams, Alpha Xi, and Julia Merritt, Iota, who transferred here in October, have fulfilled the requirement of living in Roble a quarter, and are now living in the house. Mona Dutton is back, re-pledged after a quarter's absence. Charlotte Lovekin is at home in Riverside but is expected back in the spring.

January 25, we had a "seven to eight" dance in honor of our new pledges. March 9 is the date for our winter informal. The Founders'-day banquet was January 28 at the Mark Hopkins hotel in San Francisco.

Psi-University of Wisconsin

Psi gave a Christmas party as the last social event before the holidays. December 20, Santa Claus, alias Margaret Jane Cambier, bestowed gifts upon all of us. Upon our return to college we began making plans for our annual Founders'-day banquet, which was at the chapter house January 20. About twenty alumnæ were with us for this event, and the chapter was delightfully surprised by the presentation of a beautiful Italian needle-point screen, framed in hand carved ebony.

Psi feels especially honored in having the three social queens of the university. Accompanying Willard Momsen, general chairman, Elizabeth Failing of East Orange, New Jersey, will lead the Junior promenade, at the State Capitol February 3. Martha Brown has been chosen to lead the Military ball. Mary McGowan will preside as queen at the Beaux arts ball. Also, we have just heard that one of our pledges, Dorothy Boyd, will lead the junior prom at Columbia university, while Elizabeth Fueger will accompany the chairman of the Bachelor's ball at Milwaukee.

This semester we are glad to welcome back Martha Carson, Evansville, Indiana, Anne Snodgrass, Marietta, Ohio, and Gertrude Humbert, Waukesha, Wisconsin.

During the holidays our card room was completely refurnished and our sun-room furniture repainted a brilliant red. The furniture committee has been active of late, and constantly we are being surprised with new things for the chapter house.

1 February 1928 Harriet Olds

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Marjory Robinson to Bruce Shaw. The wedding will take place next fall, and they will make their home in Detroit.

Omega—University of California

The last meeting of the fall semester was our annual Christmas party. Girls came representing motion picture stars or titles. Santa Claus, alias Catherine Ditzler, gave out appropriate presents.

Rushing began Monday, January 10, with Marcia Hudnutt rushing captain, assisted by Constance Pedder. Instead of having registration dinner, every house asked all rushees to a tea. That evening we phoned the girls for further dates during the week. January 19 we pledged Catherine Chapin, San Francisco, and Mary Dieckmann, Piedmont.

Our house is slightly smaller, for Marion Hensley graduated in December, Virginia Wallis and Adrienne Hedger both have planned European trips for spring, and LaTier Beck is out for a semester. Catherine Dunn '25 has returned to get an M.A. and a Ph.D.

Upon recommendation of Grand council, Omega's initiation average was lowered from 1.3 to 1.1, slightly above the university requirement.

Olive Balcom has been active on the campus as president of Prytanean, member of Torch and shield, and of Mortar board, member of students' Welfare council, and a senior women's editor of Daily Californian. Mary Belcher was elected to the English club. Marion Garrettson was chairman of the senior women's luncheon committee, a member of the A.S.U.C. card sales committee, sub-chairman of a new orientation group for freshman women, on the reception committee for the Senior ball, on the arrangements committee for senior week, and a member of Senior extravaganza selections committee; while both she and Mary Clark are student advisory captains. Walden Herreshoff has won many honors in both swimming and tennis. Helen Delany, Marian Evans, and Jane Younger are members of Crop and saddle, the riding club.

Alpha Beta-Swarthmore College

The six women's fraternities at Swarthmore are concentrating on raising money to furnish the lodges, which will be ready by spring vacation. Quantities of hot dogs and ice cream are being sold, and every one is going to benefit tea dances, cardparties, and movies. Alpha Beta has had two food sales and now is collecting everything from the kitchen stove to the bustle skirts for a rummage sale. We decided to wish each other a Merry Christmas by contributing $3 apiece to the lodge fund, which we estimated would be the minimum cost of cards and stamps to the sisters.

We had a dance at Marion Harris' home in honor of the pledges. The boys answered brightly colored invitations in poetry. A typical acceptance was—"Mother says I can come, by gum!" All the girls and a few of the boys came dressed in children's clothes.

The junior class also entertained the freshmen at a Sunday night supper at the Harris home. The senior big sisters invited the freshmen to supper at Marietta Watson's home in Merion just before mid-years. Alice Entriken entertained the whole chapter at a Christmas party with a tree, individual presents, and ice cream topped off with red candles and sprigs of holly.

Edna Shoemaker was elected Swarthmore's delegate to the N.S.F.A. conference at Lincoln, Nebraska. Barbara Pearson was re-elected vice-president of the freshman class, of which Peggy Palmer is secretary for second semester. Margaret Worth has joined the English club. Eleanor Jenkins is one of three women in her class to be retained on the Phænix staff. Margaret Worth and Marion Harris have been elected to Delta Iota Delta, soon to be installed as Beta chapter of Coranto, a new journalistic fraternity started at the University of Wisconsin. Anne Kennedy, Diane Follwell, Helen Booth, Anna Cocks, and Elma Hurlock are members of the basketball squad. Eleanor Jenkins and Helen Walter are out for swimming.

December 3 Columbus alumnæ gave a spread at the chapter house to which the college chapter and pledges were invited. At this time the new pledges and new initiates were presented to the alumnæ.

Our Christmas dance, formal at the Columbus Country club, December 9, was given for the chapter by the pledges, and was a party of which to be proud.

This quarter we have a new house mother, Mrs Bisnette, who is popular with the girls. Our Mothers' club have been rejuvenating the house furnishings. They have bought new curtains for downstairs, and for three rooms upstairs, a new chair for the living room and new dining room chairs. Mrs Reynolds, Deborah's mother, has given us a davenport and two chairs for our sun room.

January 11 Jane Waddell (sister of Charlotte, and daughter of Florence Dann Waddell) and Eleanor Willcox (sister of Elizabeth Willcox Burba) were pledged. Both are Columbus girls. We are sorry that Mary Frances Meyers, fall quarter pledge, did not return to college after vacation. She plans to go East to study designing.

January 25 Doris Blue was initiated, Dean Eugenia Over-turf coming from Delaware to help us.

At the Founders'-day banquet at the Broadwin the pledges gave a clever stunt and Edith Cockins, introduced by Mrs Mary Anne Miesse Donelson, read a poem on Theta's founding.

Elizabeth Southard and Ann Armstrong have been appointed on the Junior Prom committee. The Prom will be March 3. 29 January 1928

Alpha Delta-Goucher College

Until the middle of January Goucher was more like a great bazaar than a college. Every class, organization, and individual bought and sold anything from hot dogs to theater benefits, for the sake of the Greater Goucher fund. When the campaign closed we had raised over $10,000.

Besides taking a modest part in this college excitement (Margaret O'Conner was chairman for the sophomore class; Elizabeth Bunn for the freshman), Alpha Delta has had time to carry on some activities of her own. December 4 we gave a tea for our alumnæ; December 18, one for the faculty. Under the inspiration of scarlet candles, holly wreaths, and a glittering tree, even the male members of the faculty seemed to enjoy their tea.

Just before the holidays we invited the pledges and ourselves to a real Christmas party. Everybody gave somebody something—a doll baby, a rattle or a lollypop—and all had a wonderfully Christmassy time.

Alpha Delta announces the pledging of Katherine Ing and Elizabeth Rife of Baltimore. January 16 we affiliated Elizabeth Creighton and Ruth Dockum.

January 8 our understanding alumnæ, realizing the drabness of after-holiday-before-exam time, cheered us immensely by a lovely tea at Claire Stieff's.

Alpha Eta-Vanderbilt University

How happy were the Christmas holidays. This season brought home many out-of-town Thetas. To celebrate this Homecoming, we had our annual Christmas party for the alumnæ at the house.

We came back to college January 2. The pledges had passed with a class average of 92. They were all initiated January 10.

Alpha Eta celebrated Founders'-day with a banquet followed by a dance. The banquet was at the Hermitage hotel and how much fun we did have. Isabel Howell was toastmistress, and the class toasts were given by: Elizabeth Powell, alumnæ; Elizabeth Niles, senior; Stella Vaughn, junior; and Mary Doud, sophomore. The freshmen for their part gave a cleverly arranged stunt. Telegrams were received from absent members. At this time Memphis alumnæ club surprised us by presenting Alpha Eta with a beautiful birthday gift, a vase. The dance was in Memorial hall on the campus.

There is a new fashion among Alpha Eta members. It is appendicitis! In the last three weeks there have been three operative cases in the chapter. The unfortunate ones are: Ida Louise Lylerly, Elizabeth Jackson, and Becky Clairborne. The last two are freshmen.

Interfraternity basketball will begin in two weeks. The interclass basketball tournament took place last week: the freshmen beat the sophomores, and the juniors beat the seniors.

Evelyn Duncan was Theta's representative at the Alpha Omicron Pi formal dance, while she and Elizabeth Niles represented Theta at the Sigma Kappa dance.

Alpha Theta-University of Texas

Alpha Theta has little news to report, for we have had many busy days of Christmas vacations and of study. The house was entirely forsaken during Christmas, but before every one left the chapter gave the pledges a Christmas-tree party. All pledges came as "kids" and the Thetas as "ladies"—the outfits were good! We played games until Santa came to give each one a present—a joke or a toy. Then candy canes, apples and doughnuts were enjoyed. Some presents were given the chapter and our house mother, Mrs Dazey. The girls decided to combine and give the usual presents among themselves in the form of a furnishing fund to the new house.

This new home is being watched daily by Thetas and friends. Progress seems so slow, but we hope to move in by Spring.

We will have initiation on February 11. Since no grades for this year's work have been received, we do not know yet how many pledges can be initiated—but we hope it will be all the pledges. Founders'-day banquet will be that evening, immediately following initiation. Frances Mayfield will be toast-mistress, and many alumnæ are expected.

Alpha Iota-Washington University

The death of Chancellor Herbert S. Hadley, November 3, has been at the same time the greatest event on the campus and its greatest sorrow. Alpha Iota has a particular share in the sadness, for Mrs Hadley is a Theta, and to her Thetas have endeavored to show their sympathy. The death of our beloved Chancellor naturally delayed the Coed Vodvil scheduled for November 4 at Mary Institute. This performance, in which Theta has an act, Art in art, has been postponed until February 4, when it will take place, according to previous plans under the auspices of Mortar board.

Alpha Iota regrets the departure of Virginia Brauer, sophomore, but hails the return of Elizabeth Wright '29.

Much interest has been fostered in the approaching convention, and a large Alpha Iota delegation is anticipated.

Our annual formal dance was December 21 at Algonquin country club with more than customary jollity and success. The club was decorated with tapers, supper being served at eleven o'clock.

Founders'-day banquet will be at Forest Park hotel February 18, directly after initiation.

Alpha Kappa—Adelphi College

Alpha Kappa was hostess for the New York Founders'-day celebration and found the task a pleasant though a rather difficult one. New York Theta alumnæ who read this will recall the severe snow storm which was at its height January 28 and so was responsible for the absence of many Thetas from the luncheon. In spite of the blizzard over 60 Thetas were at Leverich towers, Brooklyn, where a delightful luncheon was followed by bridge. The Founders'-day ceremony was supervised by Ruth Hager, president of Alpha Kappa. Miss Helen Waldo, president of New York alumnæ, gave an address which included a tribute to a recently deceased member. Miss Waldo also presented to Alpha Kappa a banner, as a gift from New York alumnæ.

Ruth Hager, president, is organizing a staff of workers to manage the business activities of the Varsity show. Victorine Hall is a member of the senior committee for faculty teas. Evelyn Engstrom is working on the senior gift committee. Mildred Pattison is taking the part of the Mikado in the Glee Club's program February 10. Two of our pledges have been active socially: Louise Harding and Marjory Leward served on freshman dance committee, and Marjory is to usher at the Glee club show.

Alpha Lambda—University of Washington

The winter quarter terminated with a successful Christmas party for alumnæ and college members of Alpha Lambda. Stunts were presented by each class, while additional merriment was caused by the unwrapping of Christmas gifts presented to each by Ava Cochran who impersonated Santa Claus. We are grateful to our alumnæ for the silver plates given the chapter at this time.

Alpha Lambda's scholarship is on the upward trend, making an advance from 6.4 last spring quarter to 7.3 this fall quarter. A partial result of this effort is apparent, for nineteen out of twenty-one pledges made the required grades for initiation.

Anne Caldwell (sister of Eleanor and Jane), Seattle, was pledged January 16. Formal pledging for Margaret St. Clair of Idaho Falls, Idaho, took place November 30.

Our social calendar included dinners for Chi Psi, Alpha Delta Phi, and Gamma Phi Beta.

Thetas serving on the Associated student body election committee were: Helen Williams, Helen Hoska, Ruth Field, Elizabeth Turner, Ellen Gandy, and Mary Ann Kilkenny. Helen Williams has been appointed secretary of the high school tournament and of the All-university combined shows. In addition, she has a leading part in dance drama. Ruth Field is serving on the publicity committee of the combined shows and Ellen Gandy is among those chosen for dance drama.

January 8, Alpha Nu pledged Marjorie Chapple (cousin of Jane Chapple), Billings; Gladys Scully, Dillon; and Ruth Taylor. Kansas city. Kansas, after a strenuous session of open rushing.

December 11, we had our annual Christmas party. The girls exchanged inexpensive gifts which were later given to the poor children of the city. The house received a magazine rack from alumnæ, a table cover from our house mother, bridge table covers from the Billings alumnæ, two small tables from the pledges, a wood basket from the house boys, and several gifts of money.

We are beginning the quarter with twenty girls in the house. Jane Chapple, Jean Grafton, and Elizabeth Smith did not return. Lois Mac Mahon is living in North hall instead of the chapter house, and Valma Judge is with her family in Missoula. Ruth Mondale has returned and Louise Heyfron, Louise Lubrecht, Kathleen Mulcahy, and Ruth Taylor have moved to the chapter house.

Missoula played a fast and exciting game January 23, against M.S.C. Although the score was 52-39 in favor of M.S.C. the playing was good on both sides and the rooters showed a lot of spirit.

The men have revived the old custom of Hi-Jinx and are putting on the act razzing the women, January 28. Next year will be our turn! Gladys Wilson is on the governing board, composed of five senior women and five senior men, which is responsible for this year's production.

Elizabeth Veach is in charge of the annual varsity vaudvil act. Tryouts are February 11. As the cup has been ours for two successive years, we are hoping ours will be one of the acts chosen for the finals.

Alpha Xi-University of Oregon

The New Year for Alpha Xi began with the pledging of Harriet Hawkins (sister of Margaret) Portland, and Louise Clendening, Seattle, Washington. Alice Latture from Portland was pledged late in fall term. January 14 we initiated thirteen girls, eleven of whom were pledged this year. We were fortunate in having our District president, Mrs Helfrich, as guest and toastmistress at the initiation banquet. The Eugene Theta club surprised us by presenting a scholarship cup to the pledge with the highest average, Mary Malarkey.

Rushing activities during the holidays were several small luncheons and a tea, while we will have guests in the chapter house for April Frolic and Spring dance. This Christmas we were unable to give our annual children's party because of university quarantine regulations, so we had a private celebration, exchanged facetious gifts, and displayed our literary ability in verses accompanying them. A moire-covered card table and playing cards, gifts of our housemother, Mrs George Reed, are welcome additions, and our dinner table is now graced by a glass flower bowl and four vases, sent by the Theta mothers.

We are eagerly anticipating our formal, February 10, the motive of which will be Russian. Founders'-day will be celebrated in customary manner by a dinner for alumnæ at the chapter house. Alpha Xi was invited to celebrate Founders'-day with Beta Epsilon. Such joint celebration furthers the good will between the two chapters and forms a bond of friendship. We enjoyed the party greatly.

Esther Hardy received the Gerlinger cup, an honor awarded to the most outstanding junior girl on campus. Constance Roth has a leading part in R.U.R. being staged by the Guild hall players.

Alpha Omicron-University of Oklahoma

Our Founders'-day banquet, in Oklahoma city at the Oklahoma club, January 28, was most successful and well attended. There were 140 Thetas present including college members of Beta Zeta and Alpha Omicron and Oklahoma city alumnæ. An interesting phase of the banquet was the presentation of the masque. Womanhood. The masque, under the direction of Mary Mattison Shaw, was participated in by Virginia Baugh Lytle. Maude Bandel Kite, Margaret Latimer Chastain, Katherine Latimer Crowe, Alberta Connor Boyle, Freda Reed Dawson, Merle Newby Buttram, Louise Bosworth, Eleanor Drennan, Frances Klein, Mary Mee, Orlean Sparling, Ethel James Byrd and Ruth A trio, Mex Rodman, Katherine Wright and Irene Croom furnished the music for the masque. Hostesses presiding at the banquet were Mrs. Marie Miller Foster, Mrs. Mildred Dailey Baugh, Mrs Maude Bandel Kite, Grace Williams and Mrs Alva Jarbeau Torkelson.

Second semester started January 30. Alpha Omicron had no mid-year rushing. Only seventy-eight students were pledged by men's and women's fraternities.

We are glad Louise Bosworth and Marjorie Norris have returned to College but regret the graduation of Louise Clinkscales and the withdrawal of Jane Piper, Mex Rodman, Helen Eason, Margaret Dannenberg and Jane Harden. Mex Rodman sailed February 8 for a three months' tour of Europe and the Mediterranean countries.

Alice Mae Kistler had the main lead in The wandering jew, presented by the University players in February. Llewellyn Trapp is spending the first six weeks of this semester in the university practice house for home economic seniors. Audine Drew has a position on the physical education faculty of the Alpha Rho was delighted when her act, Harmony, was announced as one of the acts tying for first place in the annual Stroller's vaudeville. She was also pleased with the $37.50 which constituted the prize money, and which will buy some bricks, or floorboards, or something for the new house soon to be built. The act consisted of vocal music by a quartet, a violin duet, and some solo dancing. The girls wore bouffant formal dresses, and the act looked beautiful, even though we didn't spend any money for costumes or setting.

The annual chapter Christmas party was the night before vacation. Santa didn't arrive for some reason or other, but he left his usual fat pack of gifts for the house, including Fostoria goblets and dessert plates, from the college members; an Italian cut-work cloth for the dining table from Vermilion alumnæ; a cut-work Iuncheon cloth and napkins from Sara Jane Eggen; and many other gifts equally welcome. A gift which didn't arrive in time for the party but which had been ordered was a Wedgewood dinner set.

Helen Whittemore was elected editor of the Volante, student bi-weekly newspaper publication. Jane Mather played a character lead in a recent university dramatic production, White collars. Lyla Rogers is a member of the cast of the annual sophomore play, Rollo's wild oat. The college girls' rifle team includes three Thetas, Betty Frary, Elizabeth Davidson, and Elinor Payne, and one Theta pledge, Ruth Elliott.

Our Christmas party was a huge success. Dressed as kids, we enjoyed an informal dance at the Hermitage club. After musical chairs and other childish games were played, Santa distributed gifts before a beautifully decorated Christmas tree. The next dance to which we are looking forward, is the annual winter formal February 17, at the new Queen city club.

A delightful tea was given for the chapter and pledges December 3, by our Mothers' club, at the home of Mrs. Morris.

The Fresh painters of the University of Cincinnati took over the Grand opera house December 27 and offered prizes to the fraternity which sold the greatest number of tickets. Theta came out on top, winning both prizes, a box at the theater and twenty-five dollars.

Rehearsals have begun for Lilaine, the annual musical comedy produced by Fresh painters. In this organization Erma Pfleger holds the office of executive secretary. Nancy Brown has a dancing lead, Lucile Bardes is in the pony chorus, and Mary Louise Harder and Margery Thompson are in the main chorus for Lilaine.

Sunday of rush week was kite-flying day for Washburn Thetas. A bonny breeze, plenty of string and a bit of practice produced the effect. As the rushees drove up to the house, they saw great black and gold kites soaring in the air. It pays to advertise!

Leone Kitch, who spent the fall in New York city, has returned to the Theta house and will finish her work this spring. Our quota of house girls is eight, and after initiation we hope to have Rebecca Francis, senior pledge, in the house.

Just before the Christmas holidays, we were delighted by a party given us by the pledges. It was quite original and altogether charming. The invitations, in the shape of a kite on which was painted Santa Claus, explained that we were being invited to the opening of the "Black kitten," a night club. This idea was carried eleverly through the entire entertainment; there was an orchestra of pledges, a pony ballet, much dancing and singing, a dancing contest, waiters in Tuxedoes, little tables, and at the close of the party, a mock raid—all very thrilling.

We had our Founders'-day banquet January 28. Of course, the color motif was gold and black, with jonquils in profusion. Our gracious toast mistress was Betty Sellers Moore. There were three stunts, one each by alumnæ, college chapter, and pledges. There was much fun and merry making, but the serious side was emphasized also. Even our beloved Eleanor Leblanc was serious for once and gave a beautiful toast. Among the Thetas from other chapters were: Mrs Katherine Davis Carré, Beta Beta; Mrs Clara McKenzie Bierman, Upsilon; Mrs Aurilla Brigham Tuttle, Alpha Mu; and Sarah Pickard, Beta Beta.

All of us are delighted with "Hope," a new acquisition for the chapter. Sara Mastin and Jessamine Daggett bought her she is a Ford who has seen better days. "Hope" has become an institution and takes us down town for the small sum of onetenth of a dollar.

Rena Wilson is secretary-treasurer of the Debating club.

Mary Sanders made the Varsity basketball squad.

We are all despondent over the loss of Camilla Herdman, who is leaving college because of eyestrain, and of Virginia Colville, one of our most sincere and hardest workers, who is leaving for an operation and general recuperation.

On returning from Thanksgiving vacation, we were greeted with the news that our Mothers' club was entertaining for us December 13. Our Mothers, members of the Lafayette alumnæ club, the chapter and pledges were present at the party, a delightful affair in the form of a dinner at the Memorial Union building. A representative from each of the four groups gave a speech, the chapter also gave a stunt. The Mothers' club presented us with beautiful flat silver as a Christmas gift. The party ended with the singing of Theta songs and Christmas carols.

In the line of activities, Margaret Christie was pledged to Scribes, women's journalistic club. Mildred Shriver was elected treasurer of Eurodelphian literary society, a member of Gold peppers, athletic booster organization, and chairman of Gold diggers dance, the first university leap year affair. Catherine Horan was elected May Queen attendant.

Our Christmas formal was December 16 at the Memorial Union building.

As a farewell before the holidays, we had our Christmas party December 21, in the early hours of the morning. Members of each of the four classes entertained with a stunt and the pledges read their letters to Santa Claus. Members and pledges were presented with gifts and verses; the givers unknown to the receivers. Gifts for the chapter house included a gate leg table and scarf, pillows, silver bon bon dish, and two dozen water glasses.

We were sorry to lose one of our pledges, Mary Grace Elles, who returned home because of the illness of her mother.

Alpha Psi has her home in Brokaw annex, a college building, in which are the rooms of four other fraternities—Alpha Delta Pi, Kappa Delta, Phi Mu, and Zeta Tau Alpha. Each fraternity has one private room, and shares mutually the dining-room and kitchen. A house council, composed of a delegate from each fraternity, controls the running of the house.

Helen Rudin, Chicago, was pledged November 25.

Marion Worthing, chapter president, was hostess at a Pan-Prex dinner at Candle glow tea room November 28. Every fraternity president on the campus acts as hostess for this organization, composed of other presidents and faculty members, at some time during the year.

The pledges of Alpha Psi recently gave a tea for the other pledges of the campus at the Theta rooms.

It is our custom to have a buffet supper in the rooms every two weeks (prepared by the pledges of course!) and frequently we have the pleasure of entertaining some members of the alumnæ chapter at these informal affairs. And it is the custom of the alumnæ chapter, in turn, to entertain several college members and pledges at their monthly dinners at various Appleton homes.

December 12 Appleton alumnæ entertained the college chapter at a white elephant party and buffet supper at the home of Mary Thomas. Four days later we gave our winter formal, a dinner party, at Valley Inn, Neenah. It was but a few days before Christmas vacation and consequently some of last year's members were able to attend—Helen Chegwin, Lucille Purdy, Edith Smith and Elizabeth Ryall.

Dorothy Jane Miller was elected vice-president of Spanish club. Catherine MacLaren was elected to Zoology club, and Eleanor Lea to French club. Elizabeth Weber was elected to History club, and also to Tourmaline geology club. Helen Rudin is president of Freshman commission. About seventy Thetas, college girls and alumnæ, attended Founders'-day luncheon, January 27, at Webster hall. Mrs Homer Flint, chairman, introduced Mrs Cuthbert, Mu, who acted as Mistress of ceremonies. The president of Pittsburgh alumnæ, Mrs. Reynolds, gave a short report, and Ruth Cheney, Alpha Omega, president, talked on second semester rushing for 1928 at Pitt. Mrs Piedaw, who had visited Betty Locke Hamilton last summer, told us about her and suggested we all send greetings to her. Katherine Reineman, Alpha Omega, sang, and Mrs Lowe, Mu, concluded the program by telling us about Pennsylvania State college and the Nita-nee club.

December 10, we initiated Anna K. May and Marie Lavie, both sophomores. Most of the chapter stayed at the house that night for a slumber party, the first we have had in a long time.

We have continued with our plans for refurnishing the two living rooms of the chapter house by purchasing a rug for each room and for the hall, a mahogany gateleg table, a Cogswell chair, a walnut Windsor chair with a rush seat, and net curtains for both rooms. We feel sure now we are well prepared for rushing season, February 21 to February 24, with preferential bidding in control.

Beta Beta-Randolph-Macon Woman's College

Our annual Christmas party in honor of our promisees was the last Sunday night before we went home. The Christmas tree was loaded with mock presents for each person, and presents for the house. We received many lovely gifts from alumnæ and freshmen. Among these were linen, silver salt and pepper shakers, a brass tray, brass candelabra, two bowls, and some money.

Our kitchen has been remodeled and is the pride and joy of all the cooks in the chapter! The walls and furniture have been painted, we have some new linoleum, and Allene Drye gave us new curtains.

We had to postpone our Founders'-day celebrations until February 4.

Elizabeth Fuller is president of the debating council and presided over the debate between Randolph-Macon and the English debaters. Sara Davie and Martha Harlan are new members of the debating council. Mary Alice Beck was elected toastmistress in East hall for the Thanksgiving banquet, an unusual honor for a junior. Marian Hitler was in the sophomore play, and Lucy Mae Smith had charge of the scenery in the junior play. Gladys Doty was elected chairman of the finance committee of the Y.W.C.A. and Mary Lovejoy is a member of the freshman Cabinet. Reta Brewster, May Frances Tuttle, Beecye Casanas, Marian Hitler, and Merrill Pratt were in the German club play.

The pledges entertained the chapter December 12 with the annual Kat-sup at the home of Mildred Johnston, whose large living room was converted into a Pirate den. After a delicious meal served in true buccaneer fashion we all went on a thrilling treasure hunt which led us from the cemetery to the main business corner in town. Finally we found our treasures, small cedar jewel chests, in an old deserted house next door to the chapter house. Every one declared the Kat-sup one of the best in years. The next big social event was our Christmas party to which we invited our mothers and friends. We all got a huge laugh out of the clever gifts which Santa Claus delivered to each Theta. These toys were later given to a needy family in town. Our mothers surprised us by giving us enough money to buy three attractive chairs for our living room. A beautiful set of chimes came from Denver alumnæ, while Fort Collins alumnæ started a long desired silver tea set with the tea pot. The pledges' gift to the house was a wall tapestry with a harmonizing bridge lamp.

January 9 we had a shower for Mrs Ruth Richmond Tripp, who was married during the Christmas holidays. The Panhellenic formal was January 16. The dance hall was beautifully decorated as a garden with fountain, striped awnings, and wicker furniture.

Adding additional inspiration for a successful second semester, the Founders'-day banquet was February 1 at the Temple tea room with sixty-five alumnæ and college members and pledges present. Following tradition, the pledges offered the entertainment for the evening, a new song and a playlet, a fraternity adaptation from Blue Beard.

As a final pledge event before initiation, the pledges entertain the chapter at a dance in the chapter house February 24.

Second semester rushing is brief. We pledged Gladys Edwards (sister of Violet) from Yuma, and Jane Jordon from New York.

Beta Delta is exceedingly sorry to lose Betty Boulton who left college because of her mother's illness. Betty was the chapter editor and was active on campus in dramatic and journalistic events.

Two series of tennis games were played between Thetas and Varsity villagers to determine the championship and the possessors of the cup. Both were tied. A final decision was granted to the Villagers when it was necessary to make a count of previous games. Thetas lost, however, by only three games. Theta's faithful team was composed of Pauline Kitt, Dorothy Jones, Isabel Urban, Beta, and Betty Hawkins.

Dorothy Jones and Grace McClesky are carrying supporting parts in Rollo's wild oat, junior class play. Virginia Poindexter is editor of Manuscript, the literary magazine. On the staff of Wildcat, semi-weekly college paper, are Virginia Poindexter, Dorothy Jones, Grace McClesky, and Betty Fennemore. The Thetas on The desert, annual, are Benita Yaeger and Katherine Sample. Thetas on the staff of Kitty kat, college humor magazine, are Mary Leonard, Kathrine Sample, and Benita Yaegar.

Progress of our chapter house is promising. The contractor has tentatively promised completion by May. We will have the distinction of building and owning the first chapter house of a woman's fraternity on campus.

Beta Epsilon-Oregon State College

Our annual Christmas party and dinner was December 15. A buffet dinner, most suggestive of the Christmas season, was served in the living room; after the feast, Santa, a plump little pledge, Alberta Phillips, gave each Theta daughter a gift.

The spirit of Christmas, in the form of Portland alumnæ, visited Beta Epsilon's house too. Just as a child wakes on Christmas morn to find a beautiful baby doll and other hopedfor toys at the foot of her bed, so we returned January 3 to find complete furnishings in the new home! The richness of it all, and our appreciation of it, too, is just, may we say, "inexplicable." We would be so proud, dear reader, to show it all to you.

We have five new pledges: Connie Markeson, Tacoma; Janet Crawford, Portland; Katherine Smith, Los Angeles; Marietta Baker, Beverly Hills; and Virginia Dunsmore, Glendale, California. Our house average first term was 86. The official averages of all groups on campus are not published yet.

January 20, we gave our annual faculty reception. Between eight and ten-thirty o'clock we entertained approximately two hundred guests; it was with great pride and with much happiness that we acted as hostesses in a home most radiant and handsome in its newness.

Of course we wore our ribbons on Founders'-day and then, January 29, our sisters from Alpha Xi came to visit us. They arrived in the afternoon, and after tea, the freshmen of both chapters presented stunts.

Beta Zeta-Oklahoma State College

Thetas left for Christmas vacation with a Christmas spirit already engendered by our annual party. The pledges entertained with a stunt in which they played school. After their program Santa Claus delivered the gifts. Beta Zeta pledges and members exchange significantly silly gifts at the party, besides the hardly more personal but certainly most æsthetic ones that pledges and pledge-mothers exchange. Santa's gifts caused plenty of blushes and laughter mixed with "ohs" of those who received Theta stationery only to look at until initiation. The last ceremony of the party was the opening of gifts from Theta alumnæ and friends. We received lovely things: A fire side bench from Mr and Mrs Adams; a welcome light from Mrs Fern Fuson, alumna; a what-not for the sun-parlor from Mr and Mrs J. L. Bishop and Mrs Bell; two tied and dved scarfs from Mrs Gene Alcott, alumna; a French doll from Wauhilla Lahay and Marie Campbell, alumnæ; relish dish from Mrs Kendall Hert. alumna: a clock from Mr and Mrs Holt: a vase from Mr and Mrs Gragg: a bath bench from Mrs R. A. Fox, our Theta housemother; a mirror from Betty McDowell and Lucille Dollinger, alumnæ; a scarf from Louise Mount, alumna. Pledges and members gave Mrs Fox a mesh bag. The electric victrola, that the pledges gave the house, was in evidence too. We particularly appreciate the victrola because the pledges gave up their dance to buy it.

The Stillwater campus has been unusually dull as far as activities are concerned. The change from the quarter to the semester system has made every one work harder. Since our football victory over Oklahoma university it seems we have been content to rest on those laurels.

We are sorry to lose five girls this semester. Polly Cowan is going to St Paul, Minnesota, to do student dietetic work in a hospital. Ona Mae Macallister and Mary Crielly will be at their homes in Oklahoma City and Shawnee. Gertrude Holt will work in the registrar's office at the college. But Virginia Bailey, Oklahoma City, and Lela Clow, Garber, are returning second semester.

Beta Zeta has three new pledges: Ruth Lewis (cousin of Gertrude Holt) Stillwater; Genevieve Braley, El Reno; and Helen Remington, Newkirk. Ruth is an accomplished æsthetic dancer and Genevieve is on the staff of the O'Collegian, student daily.

Beta Eta-University of Pennsylvania

The best news is of a new pledge, Katherine Regli, pledged on Founders'-day.

For several years the University of Pennsylvania has been accepting students in February. This caused an embarrassing situation for fraternities and students entering in February as no rushing was permitted until the following October. To remedy this situation, Panhellenic has sanctioned a second rushing season, the third week of second semester. Also, to make these new students feel at home sophomores will haze the first week of the semester and all campus will entertain February freshmen at the end of that week. Repeating fall activities in the second semester is far from ideal, but is expected to care for a group who otherwise spend a rather difficult first few months at college.

Plans are under way for a practice school to be built on campus for the School of education. The Faculty tea club and Pi Lambda Theta, educational fraternity, are combining to give a dance for the fund. The practice school will be a fine and much needed addition to the School of education.

Early in the new semester the seniors will have their special week when they will be entertained by all campus and end their festivities with the annual senior dance. For the first time ever, the sophomores are going to have a dance. They hope this sophomore hop will, like the junior prom and the senior dance, become a Pennsylvania tradition.

The honorary Varsity hockey team has just been chosen and includes seven Thetas. Ethel Jones, Martha Henwood, Blanche Knabe, Ethel Rumpp, and Helen Wright are regular members, and Helen Henle and Florence Massey are substitutes.

The Memorial hall drive held among freshmen every year for the new Christian association building again went way over the top. Two Theta pledges, Elizabeth Redman and Florence Massey, were on the committee that put the drive over.

Rushing and registering—in other words the second semester opens. Beta Theta has only one formal rush party due to a new Panhellenic ruling. It is to be a formal dinner, for which plans are already under way.

Three of our pledges, Sylvia Oldman, Pauline Paterka, and Janet Gooding, have made the Glee club, as has Goldie Smith also.

December 17 Beta Theta was pleasantly surprised by a bridge party given by the pledges.

Beta Theta had intended to celebrate Founders'-day by having Alpha Sigma over to a fireside. As Alpha Sigma was unable to come Beta Theta had a lovely dinner at which the history of Kappa Alpha Theta and also the history of Beta Theta chapter were read.

The university is sorry to lose her president, Dr A. H. Upham, who is leaving to be president of Miami university. The incoming president is F. G. Kelly of Minnesota.

Beulah Brown was elected to Phi Beta Kappa last fall. To express its appreciation the chapter gave a breakfast in her honor. Beulah is president of Mortar board. Goldie Smith is junior class treasurer and is also on junior week committee. She is dramatic and music editor for the annual, The gem of the mountains. Mildred Perry is Women's league president. Ruth Newhouse and Helen Rae were recently pledged to Sigma Alpha Epsilon, national music organization.

Genevieve Frame, Virginia Tedford and Jean Hershy took part in the Little theater plays. Genevieve had the lead in a modern presentation of scenes from the Tempest.

The clever Woman's league vaudeville production included Jean Hershy, Mildred Meyer, Mary Louise Springsteen, Helen Conway, Genevieve Frame, Nancy Pleasants, Ester Anderson, Louise Sarchet, Betty Merrick, and Virginia Close.

The Midwest Student president association is meeting at the University of Colorado the week of February 20. To aid in the entertaining of the attending student presidents fifty of Colorado's fairest coeds were chosen. We are proud that nine of them are Thetas.

January 7, the last interfraternity basketball game was played. We again received the championship, also having won it last year.

At the beginning of the new term, January 30, we hope to be in our new chapter house, located on Richmond road. The house, at present, will accommodate only six girls with a chaperon but during the summer it is to be enlarged so that it will accommodate all of the chapter.

For the purpose of raising our scholarship average we passed a rule that all members making an average below 83 and all pledges making an average below 80 should study in their rooms every night from seven o'clock until 10.

January 13, we received an official visit from our newly elected District president, Virginia Smith-Zehmer. We also had with us over the same week-end Fairfax Griffith, who is teaching in Warsaw, Virginia.

We are planning a big alumnæ get-together the first weekend of February. February 3, initiation will take place, with the initiation banquet the following night.

January 16 pledge service was held for Ester Lowe, State College, Pennsylvania.

Announcement has been made of the marriage, Feb. 9, of Beverley Caldwell and Carl Fritsche, Detroit, Mich.

Beta Mu-University of Nevada

Founders'-day banquet was January 28, at which time the Theta ship, with its captain, crew, passengers, guided by the faithful alumnæ lighthouses along the way, set forth on a new year of its voyage. Toasts and Theta songs made the occasion a merry one, coming as an aftermath to our formal rushing tea on Friday. The tea was Chinese, with lovely dragon-bedecked draperies in the spacious home of Mrs George Thatcher forming a setting for the gleaming Buddhas and slippered feet of the hostesses.

Beta Mu has two new pledges: Sara Hartman, sister of Margaret, and Marjorie Blewett of Piedmont, California. We are now in the midst of rushing season.

We are happy to have Marion Cheney back on campus, and glad too of her taking the leading part in the first big Campus players production, The bad man. Berry Mcanally and Jess Roy were elected recently to membership in that organization, as a result of ability shown in several plays in the past, and at a recent meeting Evelyn Turner was elected secretary. Isabel Loring, Ellen Harrington, Margaret Hartman, and Eva Adams will appear soon in the showing of She stoops to conquer, given by Delta Alpha Epsilon, English society. Betty Sue Shaw has the lead in Icebound, the second play on Campus players' schedule. Doris Conway, Berry Mcanally, and Lucille Sanford are cast in plays soon to be given.

New appointments on Sagebrush staff include Betty Dove as society editor, in place of Ellen Harrington, who is now literary editor, and Frances Nelson as night editor. Alice Halley was recently elected secretary of the junior class, while Eva Adams is vice-president of senior class.

Theta was proud of the distinction of five girls on campus Honor Roll this semester. Ellen Harrington, Euphemia Clark, Sara Hartman, Lucile Summerfield, and Eva Adams had grades meriting placement on this list.

Margaret Lewis, Mae Bernasconi, Isabel Loring, Idel Anderson, and Eva Adams made their class rifle teams, and also made volleyball teams. Dora Clover, pledge, was captain of the freshman volleyball team, which won the class championship. Mae Bernasconi attended a conference of the Y.W.C.A. at Stanford during the holidays, representing the Nevada Y.W. in making plans for the summer conference at Asilomar.

Beta Nu-Florida State College for Women

For the first time in human history Florida State is having a real Prom with real men and real dancing. The Student government association, with our Melissa Darby as president, is sponsoring a Prom, for both juniors and seniors, February 11. This is such an unprecedented happening that we still find it hard to believe, although we were warned before Christmas holidays to make our dates for the event. Theta is having a tea dance in honor of the occasion.

Our Founders'-day banquet is to be January 30. Of course it will rain. It always does for that party.

Freshman elections were held shortly before Christmas, and Connie Seybold was elected class vice-president. Seven of our pledges were nominated for office. At the junior-senior hockey and soccer games, Beth Price made the junior soccer team; Annie Mary Moore and Edna Loughridge the junior hockey team, and Mary Huffaker the senior hockey team. None of the other class teams have been announced yet.

During the Christmas holidays we lost, through marriage, one of our most valued juniors, Mary Anderson, of Gainesville. Martha Jones has taken her place as secretary of Panhellenic. Miss Bradley, our chaperon of last year, was here to greet us when we returned. She was unable to be here before Christmas because of her health. We had an at home for her our first Sunday evening.

Thetas are so few and far between in Florida that we do wish they would let us know about themselves. We will probably hold initiation about March 1 and we would be so glad to have Thetas from other chapters present, if we only could find them to invite them.

27 January 1928

Mary Huffaker

Married: Alice Boyd '27 to Alexander Hamilton Stevens, jr, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Married: Mary Anderson to Milton H. Wyatt, Σ X. Address: Wimauma, Fla.

Born to Mr and Mrs David McDowell (Inez Turner) a son, David, jr. Statia Watkins is attending business school in Fort Myers.

Beta Nu sympathizes with Alice Winter in the loss of her father. He was one of the chapter's best friends.

Beta Xi-University of California at Los Angeles

Beta Xi is looking forward to Founders'-day banquet, January 29, at the Hotel Huntington in Pasadena. Mrs Moore, District president, will stay at the chapter house over that weekend. We thoroughly enjoyed her visit to us in November.

Alpha Tau Omega honored us with an exchange dance January 21. The great event of the evening was the presentation of a Theta song, which they had composed for us.

Ann Fontron, Hazel Converse, Betty Heineman, and Barbara Parmalee placed in the woman's all-university golf tournament. Hazel Converse won the university championship for the fourth time.

The chapter took second place in woman's interfraternity basketball, being defeated by Kappa Delta, 12 to 13.

The university hopes to move to Westwood in February, 1929. It has celebrated its entrance into the Pacific Coast conference by winning its first two conference basketball games.

Since we will now play against the University of California at Berkeley, we must change our songs and yells. Barbara Brinkerhoff is on the committee for the severance of ties with Berkeley.

The chapter is faced with the immediate problem of buying a lot and building a house at Westwood. The advisory board and alumnæ are cooperating with the chapter in devising a workable plan.

A house party will be held for pledges, after finals, February 6 and 7. We have rented a large cabin at Camp Baldy and will be thrilled to be in the snow.

26 January 1928

Mary Baskerville

Jan. 22 Agnes de Mille appeared with Jacques Cartier in a dance recital at the Republic theater, New York city. The rotogravure section of the New York Times, Jan. 15, had a charming picture of her in costume.

Beta Omicron-University of Iowa

Dreams for a new house are at last being realized. One half block of land has been purchased and plans are well underway for a colonial home which will be ready for fall rushing.

Two girls have been pledged recently: Esther Christianson of Soldier, and Margaret Echlin of Nevada. Ruth Hendricks, our rush captain, is graduating at midyear Commencement, and goes to teach English and Latin at Baxter high school. Helen Singley has an important part in the next university theater play, The detour.

January 14, at the regular Saturday afternoon varsity, an informal dance sponsored by Women's association for the purpose of helping students become acquainted, six of the chapter acted as hostesses. The yearly custom of having a Panhellenic relay as a special feature of an indoor track meet, will be carried out January 28. A team of men chosen by Theta will run, wearing Theta colors.

Beta Pi-Michigan State College

January 14 initiation was held for Martha Farley, Ruth Sangster, Adele Foster, Maxine MacNames, Dorothea Youngs, Mary Jo Thomas, Dorothy Traphagen, Florence Tower, Josephine Rulison, Lois Crane, Ruth VanWinkle Graham, Clara Van-Winkle Baker, Bessie Hayes and Mary Hewitt. The banquet, a lovely and impressive affair in honor of the initiates, was at the Olds hotel. Besides the chapter alumnæ we were pleased to have Miss Lynch, District president, and Mrs Heinmiller, our Detroit alumnæ advisor, and several Albion alumnæ club Thetas present. Mrs Farley, the mother of Martha, was also here for daughter's initiation.

Last year we worked out a point system for pledges, the primary purpose to stimulate interest and participation in campus activities. The pledge winning the highest number of points was presented with a Theta bar pin at the initiation banquet. This year the high point pledge was Josephine Rulison.

Before we left for the Christmas holidays we dressed dolls for the Y.W.C.A. and gave a shower for the chapter house. Among other useful gifts the house received a silver tray from Helen Taylor, a lovely cluny lace tea cloth from the freshmen, a bridge lamp, bridge covers, a hall mirror, and some hammered brass candlesticks.

January 5 the sophomores and juniors were guests of the alumnæ at a waffle supper at the home of Mrs Phila Pratt.

The Union opera production is to be Spanish moon. Marguerite Clark has second lead and among other members of the cast are Helen Murdock, Esther Darling, Alice MacWood, and Maxine MacNames.

Jane Dean, Dorothy Butler, Irene Johnston and Esther Darling are on committees for the J-Hop March 2.

Several of our girls will celebrate Founders'-day with Detroit alumnæ at the Hotel Statler in Detroit January 29.

February 18 is the date of our formal party at the Lansing country club.

23 January 1928

Ruth Tower

Married: Margaret Strong and John W. Wolcott. Address: 1214 B st. San Mateo, Calif.

The engagement of Helen Perrin to Capt. E. V. Smith has been announced.

Dorothy MacWood, Edith Comstock, Lena Thomas, Olga Bird, Helen Crane, Bonnye Hallack, Dorothy Vandercook Peterson, Lucille Gardner Mills, Marjorie Gitchell were back for initiation.

ONG, long ago, in the early days of American industry, there probably lived a trader who experienced a distressing relation with an acquaintance of business. Possibly it was he, after a rueful discovery, who spoke the now famous words, to the effect that business and friendship cannot be united.

Every worth while industry of today has built a sturdy denial to the old statement. When a company reaches a development of growth that causes the bonds of friendship to cease, the long road to oblivion looms ahead.

Our contracts and our organizations have meant much to us. Yet the friendships of fraternity men and women, created in undergraduate days and maintained after graduation, have brought to us our greatest pride. Without them, the daily routine of work would be immeasurably dull.

Business as business, and friendship for friendship's sake, have never a justifiable cause for combat.
